My grandfather, before his death, gave him a part of his farm and they built a house; and worked a crop to feed his family of four or five children.

I felt bereft indeed when my father died. He had considerable property and left a will, dividing it equally between my brother and myself and deeding a fine tract of land in Navarro County to my half-sister Mrs. Burtis. We three were the only remaining children. My half-brother Charles Word had gone into business, a young man, in Corsicana and joined the Army there and while I was in Tennessee during the War we got the sad news of his death. At Bull Run, while he was drinking a cup of coffee, his head was shot entirely off by a cannon ball.

My brother Manie, a confederate soldier, died in a hospital in Richmond, Virginia, of Typhoid Fever in September during the War, before he had engaged in any battle, and the members of his company thought so highly of him that they put a tombstone over his grave and wrote us about it. The tombstone still stands in Richmond.

My Uncle William Viser and Captain George B. Forrest were made executors of my father's will and he expressed the wish that I make my home with Captain Forrest. He left quite a large estate of notes and many thousands of acres of land, so I went to the Forrest's to live in the Fall of 1866.

Mr. Thomas Ramsey

Dear Mr. Ramsey:

Received my OGS Newsletter today and saw your query on page 174 which included the name McGary. My McGary ancestor, Martha Patsey McGary (dau of John) married in Butler County, Ohio to Edward Popejoy on 14 Jan 1813. I know absolutely nothing about my McGarys, but do belong to the McGeary-McGary-McGarey-McGara Family Association. I have the book written by George D. McGeary, M.D. of Bend, Oregon. It deals primarily with the Pennsylvania branches of the family, but does have some records for other states.

I checked the book and found the enclosed wonderful old lettersmwritten apparently by a grandson of Anne Reed McGary. You may be aware of these letters or even have them, but they are surely priceless. The writer of the letters, A. A. McGarry, gives much information concerning the Reed family and the McGarrys, but am a bit puzzled at his references to McGarys who were here much earlier than 1785. Would have been great if the letters of Miss Elizabeth Thompson had survived.

Mr. A. A. McGarry speaks of the men who married the Reeds as being descendants of Hugh (he also, calls him Henry) McGarry of the Battle of Blue Licks, famous in history. I believe this Hugh McGary was probably the Virginia McGary who was by 1754 in that state, and became the McGary who was blamed for the loss of the Battle of Blue Licks.

Hope the enclosed letters are new to you and something which will add to your research.

Sincerely,

PS

The majority of my research is in Ohio counties, Darke, Meigs, Butler, Brown Pike and Fayette, but ELIDA, I had to look up. What is a Bartlesville, Oklahoma - it is in Washington County very near the southern border of Kansas.

Dear Mary,

Thank you very much for your letter. It is really interesting as I have not been able to do a lot of research on this family. I've never got down to the Morgan County area, it's about a 4 hour drive from where I live.

Mr. McGarry's letter is really wild. His 40 years of research must not have been too scientific. I like where David McGarry's wife filed a slander suit against her father and brothers in the 18th century. In the 18th century they were all still in Ireland and David and Anna were very young children. I do hope some of it is true he does have all of the people married to the right people. I'm hoping these families did know each other in Ulster, this gives a good lead on where they are from. There is a Ballymena in Antrim. And David McGarey's naturalization says he was born in Antrim. (If you didn't see it, that is in the OGS Report 1982, page 89.) By the way, I'm descended from Martha Reed and Richard Campbell (who were married in Ireland). I hope you understand this letter, I'm just writing it as I think, and play with my two year old son Seth at the same time.

Enclosed are John Reed's will and a family group sheet on John Reed. John Reed came in 1813 according to a history of Noble Co. (Noble Co was formed in 1848, when they settled it was Morgan Co.) The copy of the will is terrible as I got it off of a greatly reduced microfilm at the Ft. Wayne Ind. library. Anyway the family group sheet lists everyone mentioned, except for James' son John.

You will notice in the Naturalizations quoted above, That all of these people came at different times, probably as they could afford it. Richard Campbell's date should say 1807, and he was in New Jersey a few years before coming to Ohio.

Is your John McGarry the same that married Jane Reed? The next time I get to Ft Wayne I can see if there is any information available, it may be several months, though. I did look through ~~a~~ Morgan + Noble Co. Histories when I was last at the Ohio Historical Center, but did not copy McGary information though there were several mentions of them.

I noticed you are in the Fayette Co. Gen. Soc., so am I. I seen you listed in the last issue, and remembered the McCary name. Strangely enough, recently I have been corresponding with another Bartlesville resident, Maxine Coonfield. She wrote me on a Vermillion family which we couldn't connect, but it turned out her sister-in-law was a Ramsey from a branch of my family that had went west.

That's all I have right now, maybe I'll find more notes somewhere but that's it tonight. Thanks again for your letter and I hope this information can help you some. Bye for now.

Sincerely,
Tom Ramsey

You may have found a new cousin. I wrote to Thomas Ramsey in reply to a query in the Genealogical Helper about John Reed who is my 3rd great grandfather. He sent me John and Anna Reed's family group sheet and says that he has a copy of John Reed's will which I am going to ask him for. He also stated that you had sent him some sheets from Dr. George McGeary's book and that you were descended from John McGarry and Jane Reed as am I.

This is all exciting news to me as I have been at somewhat of a dead end in finding information about my Noble County, Ohio ancestors.

I am attaching what information I have on family group sheets for John McGarry & Jane Reed; for John Smith and Sarah McGarry and for Matthew Smith and Mary Davis. You will see Fred Smith listed on the last sheet and he is my father.

If you can add to the information about any of these ancestors I would more than appreciate it and be happy to re-imburse you for any expense involved.

The Elizabeth Thompson letters in Dr. McGeary's book were sent to him by me. He deleted some information that he thought was not suitable and I thought you might be interested in complete copies of the original.

My mother left me these letters. They were sent to my father by his brother Hugh who write that they were found In LeRoy Thompson's possessions. He was the husband of Sarah McGarry's daughter Jane Smith.

I would appreciate hearing from you and would surely like to have any further information you might have about any of these people. And if there is anything you think I might have that you would like--please let me knoe.

Thanks so much--

Dear Mr. Smith:

Received your letter and enclosures pertaining to the John McGarry/Jane Reed family. I have not been able to find any connection between my McGary family and the John McGarry family from which you are descended. This does not mean it is not possible, but my research appears to make it seem unlikely. I did not indicate in my letter to Thomas Ramsey (1 Dec 1983) that there was a connection.

Although I have quite a lot of McGary (and variants) information, I still know only the following for certain:

My 3rd great-grandmother was,

Martha Patsey McGarey
b. 19 July 1795 - Ohio
m. 13 Jan 1814 in Butler Co., Ohio to Edward M. Popejoy (1786-1864)
d. 19 Nov 1875 - Fayette Co., Ohio (both buried in Higbee Cemetery, Fayette Co. Ohio)

Book C, Chancery Court Records/Fayette Co., Ohio

April term - 1849, page 75
William Rankin, Jr. vs Edward Popejoy et al. John J. Popejoy, unmarried son of Edward; John Hays partner in Edward Popejoy's cattle business; A. S. Ballard rented the store room and ware house and two other rooms of John J. Popejoy. John Majary ? grandfather of John J. Popejoy. (This court record of 1849 names the husband and son of Martha Patsey McGarey and lists the grandfather as John Majary - thus the fa father of Martha. I am at a loss to understand what the court action means or why the grandfather was listed - MN).

The only other reference to John MCGarry or McGary are in old letters which were enclosed with the War of 1812 service records pertaining to Edward Popejoy's service which I obtained from the National Archives. I am enclosing copies of those letters which were written to/from Mr. J. J. Hensley, Seattle, WA, in 1939. Mr. Hensley states that the father of Martha was John McGarry or McGary. I have tried to locate Mr. Hensley or any of his descendents, but have had no success (see Genealogical Helper, Mar-Apr 1984, page 56).

Mr. J. J. Hensley is apparently descended from a daughter of Martha Patsey McGarey and Edward M. Popejoy. His line is likely from:

Martha J. Popejoy (dau of Martha Patsey McGarey and Edward M. Popejoy)
b ca 1827
m 5 Sept 1844 - to John Hensley in Fayette Co. Ohio
d bef Feby 1870 (court records) living Iowa City, Johnson Co., Iowa

I would very much like to locate someone who knew this J. J. Hensley. His records, if still extant, may be the key to this McGary line, or several others.

Do you have Dr. George McGeary's book? It contains much useful information for the McGary researchers, but does not give much on the Ohio branch of this name. The most is about the PA families.

Let me know if you have further questions and sorry I have nothing to contribute to the John McGarry/Jane Reed line at this time.

Sincerely,
Mary Nunneley Mary

Miss Elizabeth Thompson

Philadelphia, Pa.

My dear Madam:-

Your favor of July 29th, 1915, has been duly received and contents noted. I note who you are. I know Jane McGarry Morrison, she was a first cousin of my father and a very fine lady. I also know Sarah McGarry Smith who was a sister of Jane Morrison, and who you say is your grand-mother. I draw my breath and endeavor to figure the relationship you are to me. The common ancestor is Hugh McGarry. You are four generations from Hugh McGarry, while I am three generations from the common ancestor. The two McGarry's whom you mention are John and David McGarry, our respective grandfathers. John McGarry came to America in 1785; he was followed a few years later by my grandfather David McGarry. He had studied medicine in the old country and was already a doctor. They came in quest of two young ladies; one was known as Jane Reed, your grandmother and one was known as Anne Reed, my grandmother, whom I knew quite well and whom I very tenderly remember. These young ladies were the daughters of John Reed, who sought to escape these McGarry boys, and he came to America to what was then the far west and settled on or near the head waters of Duck Creek. John McGarry was the more enterprising he went in quest of Jane Reed his lady love and finally reached the goal of his struggle by reaching Buffalo Creek or what is now Sarahsville. He hired to a farmer and soon visited the Reed home, and his presence was soon known to John Reed his father-in-law, and then began the race for the girl. It is useless to say that he succeeded and John Reed at last forgave him and the two families lived in peace thereafter. It is the same old story with the same old ending and the same old result. It was not so pleasant with my grandfather. He learned from your grandfather the fact of his success, he came to the same neighborhood and for some reason or other the Reed's were more bitter at him than at John McGarry. He at last stole the maiden away and was married and for many years there existed a strife between the two families. David McGarry's wife, Anne McGarry, began a slander suit against her brothers and against her father which, strange to say, culminated successfully for the girl. In that early day the closing hours of the eighteenth century she recovered a verdict against her father and brothers which on appeal to the Supreme Court was affirmed and was finally paid and with the procedes of that verdict she entered a large tract of land now adjoining the town of Caldwell. Both families were very large, I think, my grand-mother raised some twenty-one children who grew to manhood and womanhood. Your grand-mother raised quite a number. I have forgotten now without looking at the record, but I think it was some nine or ten children. The Reeds finally scattered. One of them came to this city and died just below Des Moines. His name was Jacob Reed. He was a brother of Anne Reed and Jane Reed. His grand-children are numerous. The law firm here of Reed and Reed are his grand children. William Reed another one of the brothers died in Illinois. It is useless to follow them farther. They were people who were industrious, quarrelsome, contentious and ill-natured, but they found a match in John and David McGarry. I believe I wrote you a few days ago the history of William McGarry the last son of Hugh McGarry. Henry McGarry came from the old country to Kentucky; he figured in the Indian Wars. If you have time you look up the Battle of Blue Licks in which he was killed. One brother and two sons of Daniel Boone, and you will find a better picture of this particular McGarry than I am able to give you. He left a large family; they are scattered, in Kentucky, Missouri, Illinois and Iowa. There were two other boys; Samuel and David who were in the Battle of Waterloo and who were killed in that engagement. They fell near Haugemont. They were buried on the battle field and their remains have never been disturbed. There was another brother who went to India and was never heard of afterwards. The other boys and daughters of Hugh McGarry settled in Ireland and so far as I know lived and died there. The Pennsylvania branch of the family is decended from William McGarry and whose ancestors you will find are very numerous. It may pay you to look up the record in the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. You will find these people very proud of their ancestors. One of them was sherriff of this county for four years. He had the failing of the entire McGarry family; he too took to strong drink. When he was last in my office he informed me that he had drunk nothing in two years. Now the father of Hugh McGarry was Alexander McGarry; Alexander McGarry's father was John McGarry; John McGarry's father was Bartholomew McGarry; Bartholomew's father was Charles McGarry; Charles McGarry's father was James McGarry; James McGarry's father was William McGarry; William McGarry's wife was Jane Stuart; Jane Stuart was the sister of James the First. This may sound "fishy" to you, but I have looked the matter up and find this is the case. I find that all the McGarry's were Catholics down to Hugh McGarry who was the first protestant. They were Catholics when it took courage to be one. How they got changed from Catholics to Protestants, I cannot discover, and presume will not at this day and age as the cause is entirely lost. I also traced the ancestory back pretty nearly one thousand years. The source of my information is the parish registery at Bellamena, Ireland. This is the source of the McGarry family. They must have been people of some importance. In the later part of the seventeenth century and the early part of the fifteenth century. They have been married into the royal family, but do not elevate yourself on that account, I do not think the Stuart's much of a Royal family to be proud of. Now I will give to you the source of my information; there is the Parish registry already mentioned, and my other source of information is from William Miller, who lived to the ripe age of one hundred and thirty two (132) years; he outlived all of his children but one; he died near Caldwell, Ohio, and is buried in the Jennings Cemetery. He married one of the Reed girls, she was younger than my grand-mother, but died many years before her. This Mr. Miller gave me the account of my grand-father's family, and of the time my grand-father and grand-uncle, your grandfather had in marrying the Reed girls. He bought land near and adjoining the land of my grand-father and lived there until he died. He was a very intelligent man and gave me all that I have of the Ohio branch of the family. He likewise came to America for the purpose of marrying one of these Reed girls. It seems they must have been very fascinating, at least so far as to draw after them all their lovers from Ireland. William Miller was put in the army. He resigned from the army to come to his lady love and was married the next day after he arrived at the Reed home. There was no objection to him from the Reeds, and he was married to one of the Reed girls, I think, to Mary Reed. He gave me the details of how the McGarry boys reached America and how they were married and I presume that is correct I believe I have given you all the history that I have. I might say that Sarah Smith lived on part of the land her father entered near Sarahsville, and that I have been at her house very frequently. I presume that I likewise know Jane Thompson. If she is living you can ask her if she is acquainted with me. I do not now remember of ever having met you, but I am glad to welcome you to the circle of my imaginary friends. You can let me know the name of your four brothers or in what business they are engaged. I am very sorry to learn of the death of aunt Jane Morrison. She was a very dear character. The last of my grandfather's family died very recently at Viroqua, Wisconsin, he was in his eighty-fourth year. He did not die really, but simply withered away. He had his senses until the last, but not the use of his legs. I am sorry that you did not find time to write me earlier in your life you could have been of great value to me in pursuing my inquiries. It might be well for you to take a directory of the city of Philadelphia and gradually go through same selecting out all the McGarry's and write to them you would in some way find out where they came from, Ireland or Scotland. I did not say to you that there is also a branch of the McGarry's in Scottland. You can put your finger on the space north of the Coledonian Canal and you will find in the territory north that canal and lake known as Lake Garry. There is a settlement of Garry's near this lake, or rather of McGarry's. They are of the same set of people as are settled in and around the city of Bellamena in Ireland. I am not now in the banking business, I simply lost enough money and retired. My New York correspondent was a Chemical National Bank with whom I did

Henry Thomson was a prof of Zoology at Harvard and for a short time President — the father of Elise Lois worked with his daughter on library research in Philadelphia. Left a fortune of some $40,000

most of my dealing. I would like, however, to have the address of your four brothers as I would like to write to them. The old Jennings graveyard contains nearly all the McGarry's in south-eastern Ohio, at least it contains the decendants of John and David McGarry, and of the three Reed girls. I shall not take anything from you as you mention paying me for my information I do not consider any compensation as right I consider it only a pleasure to give you all the information I can. I have never examined anything into the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. You will find that William McGarry was in Virginia and not in Pennsylvania, but some of the McGarry's there have at least a partial list of his decendants. I have never examined the same. My stenographer is from Pennsylvania. She has returned from her vacation. She is from Somerset town in Somerset County, State of Pennsylvania. She says she never heard of the McGarry's, hence, they cannot be so numerous over the state generally. There are McGarry's at Grand Rapids, Michigan, quite a family. Thomas McGarry was sentenced for three years in the penitentiary. This was for bribery. He claims it was because he was a democrat. You might find it of interest to write him. They decended from the same general branch of McGarry's. You also will find quite a "nest". of McGarry's in Rhode Island. These McGarry's, I think, are of Scotch origin. These are about all the general families in this country. You will find quite a number of McGarry families settled throughout the United States; all of them coming from the same general source. You will find all kinds of corruption in the spelling of the name; you will find it spelt McGery, McQuery and many other ways; you will find it O'Gary spelt in various ways. There are a number of McGarry's here, all of them come from either the Scotch or Irish branch of the family. Let me remark now that there is not such a distinction in the Celic History as scotch and irish; they are all one people, the Highlander speaks his native tongue can readily converse with the fisherman at Donnegal who pretend to speak a different language they are all one and the same. I must now close, hoping that I will not wear you out in my first letter, and with that request that you answer such of this letter as meets your fancy.

Respectfully,

/s/ A. A. McGarry

BP/AM

P.S. I have received your letter of August 9th, 1915, and shall answer same farther on in my career when you become tired answer me and tell me all people seem. You will find the name Reed spelled in all conceivable ways as well as McGarry. I shall give you the various sources of information. Examine the records of Jefferson College (U. of P., Philadelphia, Pa.), a medical school and you will find the record of the graduation of my Grand Father David McGarry. Have you studied Celtic and been able to get at the source of the family.

My dear Friend:-

Your favor of August 13, 1915, has been duly received and contents noted. Also your favor of August 9, 1915, came duly to hand, therefore, I have quite a few things to answer. You must remember that I began the investigation of my ancestry over forty years ago, and have been at the same a number of years. You will notice quite a strange but, nevertheless, true incident connected with the trace of ones ancestories. Thus you have two in the first generation from your ascending a father and a mother. You have four in the second generation ascending or two grandfathers and two grandmothers. You have eight in the third generation ascending from you are four great grandfathers and four great grandmothers. In the next generation you have sixteen or eight great grandfathers and eight great grandmothers. In the next generation you have thirty two. In the next generation you have sixty-four all of equal relationship to you. In the next generation you have one hundred and twenty-eight. Every generation you have twice as many as you had in the preceding generation, so in time you are related to every one in the same race of people to which you have been and in time you are related to every person who lived on the earth. Now the only way you could break this rule would be to have a man marry his own daughter, which is very unlikely and does not exist even among the most savage people. All these ancestors lived at one time. In descending generations you can have almost as many, if not more, who have you say a common ancestor. You can safely say that every family consists of five children. Among the Irish people the families are much larger; each one marries some one outside the family and so on down through the generations. Occasionally the name will be lost, but nevertheless it will make any one have the same number of people having a common ancestor. You can trace any number of people back if you can only get the particular providence and parish in which they lived; that is you can trace them back of they are traceable. I notice what you say about the study of language. You have, indeed, a full knowledge of the modern language. If you have some knowledge of Celtic it would assist you in tracing your ancestors. You will find at the Medical College that my grand-father graduated there over one hundred years ago. Does the Irishman, Mr. O'Bolger have any knowledge of Celtic. I was not aware that there were two towns by the name of Bellamena, however, there may be. You will see the name quite often as the proprietors of saloons. There are a number of saloon keepers in Chicago, by the name of McGarry. There are two boys here who are the sons of William McGarry, who was a son of Samuel McGarry, Samuel McGarry who was the son of John McGarry. Samuel McGarry was a brother of your grandmother, Mrs. Smith. These young men are very bright young men. They spend a great deal of their spare time waiting at the bar, I mean by the bar, the bar of the saloon. They are both great drunkards. One of them was recently appointed assistant physician in the hospital for the insane in Clarinda, Iowa. His name is Fredrick L. McGarry. The other young man is practicing medicine down at Foster, in Monroe County. His name is Burton S. McGarry. These are the only immediate relatives of yours in this city or in this community. There are a number of decendents of the Pennsylvania branch here. There are also several other McGarry's, but none of them are immediate relatives. William is a very common name of the McGarry's, also is James. It would be well for you to write each of those people; all who are intelligent will tell you as well as they can who their ancestors were. Those who do not probably cannot tell who they are, or are very indifferent, ignorant, and careless. You have the spelling correct. The name is derived from the plural of the word Gar. This means in Celtic a spear or javelin. Mc means the of, from or the son of. It is a preposition with various meanings. Of course the ry is added to indicate the plural. So that we have McGarry literally meaning in English one of the sons of the spearman or guards. All the spelling, other than given above is a corruption and its from the ignorance of the people bearing the name. I looked up the estate, if any, contained in the title that William McGarry bore, I find that there was none; it seems that he only had an empty name and no title connected with it. I do not know of any way to obtain the name of the various women whose blood flows in our veins. Your blank for keeping records is a very good one for the descending generations, but not so good for the ascending. I shall try and send you an outline of the descending generations. In looking over the family tree, I find that Samuel McGarry was the brother of Sarah McGarry. They were the son and daughter of John McGarry; they are the ancestors of the boys of whom I have written you. I do not know anything more that interests you at this time. I have spent a number of years on this matter of genealogy. I have gathered together what pretends to be a great number of facts.

Yours respectfully,

of a quarter township, in the general tract mentioned and described in said act: Provided always, that the fractional quarter townships upon the river Sciota, and those upon the river Muskingum adjoining the grant made to Ebenezer Zane, or the towns Salem, Gnadenhutten or Shoenbrun, or the Indian boundary line, shall in every case be accepted and taken in full satisfaction for four thousand acres.

Certain fractional quarter townships to be taken for four thousand acres.
Vol. i. 491.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That whenever locations shall be made on any quarter township, which, according to the actual survey and plat thereof, returned by the Surveyor General, is stated to contain less than the quantity of four thousand acres, except in the case of fractions provided for in the preceding section, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Treasury to issue, or cause to be issued, certificates, expressing the number of acres remaining unsatisfied of any registry of warrants for the quantity of four thousand acres, made in pursuance of the act before recited, which certificates shall have the same validity and effect, and be liable to be barred in like manner as warrants granted for military services, but no certificate shall be granted, nor any claim allowed for less than fifty acres, nor for the navigable water contained within the limits of any quarter township or fractional quarter township.

When locations are made on quarter townships stated to contain less than four thousand acres, the Secretary of Treasury shall cause certificates to be issued for the deficiency.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That whenever a location shall be made on any quarter township, which, according to the actual survey and plat thereof, returned by the Surveyor General, is stated to exceed the quantity of four thousand acres, no patent shall be issued in pursuance thereof, until the person making such location, shall deposit at the treasury, warrants for military services or certificates issued by virtue of the preceding section, equal to the excess above four thousand acres, contained in such quarter township, or shall pay into the treasury of the United States two dollars per acre, in the certificates of the six per cent. funded debt of the United States, or money, for each acre of the excess above four thousand acres as aforesaid.

What is to be done when they are made on quarter townships stated to contain more than four thousand acres.

Land at two dollars per acre.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That after the priority of location shall have been determined, and after the proprietors or holders of warrants for military services shall have designated the tracts by them respectively elected; it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to designate by lot, in the presence of the Secretary of War, fifty quarter townships, of the lands remaining unlocated, which quarter townships, together with the fractional parts of townships remaining unlocated, shall be reserved for satisfying warrants granted to individuals for their military services, in the manner hereafter provided.

Reservations for satisfying warrants granted to individuals for their services.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the land in each of the quarter townships designated as aforesaid, and in such of the fractional parts of quarter townships, as may then remain unlocated, shall be divided by the Secretary of the Treasury, upon the respective plats thereof, as returned by the Surveyor General, into as many lots, of one hundred acres each, as shall be equal, as nearly as may be, to the quantity such quarter township or fraction is stated to contain; each of which lots shall be included, where practicable, between parallel lines, one hundred and sixty perches in length, and one hundred perches in width, and shall be designated by progressive numbers upon the plat, or survey of every such quarter township and fraction respectively.

Reservations to be divided into lots of one hundred acres.

Manner in which they shall be surveyed.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That from and after the sixteenth day of March next, it shall be lawful for the holder of any warrant granted for military services, to locate, at any time before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and two, the number of hundred acres expressed in such warrant, on any lot or lots, from time to time, remaining unlocated within the tracts reserved as aforesaid, and upon surrendering such warrant to the treasury, the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive a patent in the manner, and upon the conditions heretofore prescribed by law; which patent shall in every case express the range, township, quarter township or fraction, and number of the lot located as aforesaid. But no location shall be allowed, nor shall any patent be issued for any lot or lots of one hundred acres, except in the name of the person originally entitled to such warrant, or the heir or heirs of the person so entitled; nor shall any land, so located and patented, to a person originally entitled to such warrant, be considered as in trust for any purchaser, or be subject to any contract made before the date of such patent, and the title to lands acquired, in consequence of patents issued as aforesaid, shall and may be alienated in pursuance of the laws, which have been, or shall be passed in the territory of the United States, northwest of the river Ohio, for regulating the transfer of real property, and not otherwise.

Holders of such warrants may make locations on those lots, and receive patents to their own use only, after 16th March, 1800, and before Jan. 1st, 1802.

Where locations are made on the same tract, priority to be determined by lot.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That in all cases after the sixteenth of March next, where more than one application is made for the same tract, at the same time, under this act, or under the act to which this is in addition, the Secretary of the Treasury shall determine the priority of location by lot.

Public notice to be given of the reservations by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to advertise the tracts which may be reserved for location, in lots of one hundred acres, in one newspaper in each of the states, and in the territory aforesaid, for and during the term of three months.

The plat returned by the Surveyor General to be conclusive as to quantity.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the actual plat and survey, returned by the Surveyor General, of quarter townships and fractional parts of quarter townships, contained in the tract mentioned and described in the act to which this is a supplement, shall be considered as final and conclusive, so far as relates to the quantity of land supposed to be contained in the quarter townships, and fractions, so that no claim shall hereafter be set up against the United States, by any proprietor, or holder of warrants for military services, on account of any deficiency in the quantity of land contained in the quarter township or fractional part of a quarter township, which shall have been located by such proprietor or holder, nor shall any claim be hereafter set up by the United States, against such proprietor or holder, on account of any excess in the quantity of land contained therein.

Chap. XIV.—An Act providing for Salvage in cases of Recapture.(a)

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That when any

---

(a) Salvage on recapture. Salvage is a compensation for actual services rendered in saving the property charged with it; and it is demandable of right for vessels saved from the enemy, or from pirates. There must be meritorious services, and the taking must be lawful. Talbot v. Seaman, 1 Cranch, 1; 1 Cond. Rep. 229.

On the recapture of a vessel by a neutral vessel, no claim for salvage can arise, for the recapture was a hostile act, not justified by the situation of the nation to which the recapturing vessel belongs, in relation to that from the possession of which the recaptured vessel was taken. The degree of service rendered in such a case, is precisely the same as if it had been rendered by a belligerent; yet the rights accruing from the recapture are different, because no right can accrue from an act which was unlawful. Ibid.

American property recaptured was restored on payment of salvage; the libel having prayed the condemnation as prize, and no salvage having been claimed. The question of salvage is incident to the question of prize. The Adeline, 9 Cranch, 244; 3 Cond. Rep. 397.

In order to entitle to salvage, as upon a recapture or rescue, the property must have been in possession of the enemy, either actual or constructive. The Ann Green, 1 Gallis. C. C. R. 274.

Salvage is not due for "rescuing a vessel of a neutral out of the hands of a belligerent, who has taken possession for a supposed violation of a treaty or the law of nations." The Antelope, Bee's D. C. R. 233.

An American vessel was captured by an enemy, and after condemnation and sale to an enemy, was recaptured by an American privateer. The original owner claimed the vessel, offering to allow salvage. Held: that it was not a case for salvage, under the act of March 3, 1800, or the act of June 26, 1812. The property had become completely divested by the capture and condemnation. The Star, 3 Wheat. 78; 4 Cond. Rep. 198.

Vessels to be furnished therewith.

On sale or loss of the ship, passport to be delivered up.

the collector for the district, where such ship or vessel may be, with a passport of the form prescribed and established, pursuant to the foregoing section; for which passport, the master of such ship or vessel, shall pay to the said collector, ten dollars, to be accounted for by him; and in order to be entitled to such passport, the master of every such ship or vessel shall be bound with sufficient sureties, to the Treasurer of the United States, in the penalty of two thousand dollars, conditioned, that the said passport shall not be applied to the use or protection of any other ship or vessel, than the one described in the same; and that, in case of the loss or sale of any ship or vessel having such passport, the same shall, within three months, be delivered up to the collector from whom it was received, if the loss or sale take place within the United States; or within six months, if the same shall happen at any place nearer than the Cape of Good Hope; and within eighteen months, if at a more distant place.

Vessels to pay collectors certain sums every voyage.

1831, ch. 20.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be paid on every ship and vessel of the United States sailing or trading to any foreign country, other than some port or place in America, for each and every voyage, the sum of four dollars, to be received and accounted for, by the collector, at the time of clearing outward, if such vessel be bound direct to such foreign country, from any port of the United States, or at the time of entry in the United States, if such ship or vessel shall have sailed to such foreign country, from any port or place in America, other than of the United States.

Penalty on sailing without passport after first September.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That if any ship or vessel of the United States, shall depart therefrom, after the first day of September next, and shall be bound to any foreign country, other than to some port or place in America, without such passport, the master of such ship or vessel shall forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred dollars for every such offence.

Surveyor General to cause certain lands to be surveyed.

Post, p. 724.

Chap. XLVI.—An Act regulating the grants of land appropriated for Military services, and for the Society of the United Brethren, for propagating the Gospel among the Heathen.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Surveyor General be, and he is hereby required, to cause to be surveyed, the tract of land beginning at the northwest corner of the seven ranges of townships, and running thence fifty miles due south, along the western boundary of the said ranges; thence due west to the main branch of the Scioto river; thence up the main branch of the said river, to the place where the Indian boundary line crosses the same; thence along the said boundary line, to the Tuscaroras branch of the Muskingum river, at the crossing place above Fort Lawrence; thence up the said river, to the point, where a line, run due west from the place of beginning, will intersect the said river; thence along the line so run to the place of beginning; and shall cause the said tracts to be divided into townships of five miles square, by running, marking and numbering the exterior lines of the said townships, and marking corners in the said lines, at the distance of two and one half miles from each other, in the manner directed by the act, intituled "An act providing for the sales of the lands of the United States, in the territory northwest of the river Ohio, and above the mouth of Kentucky river;" and that the lands above described, except the salt springs therein, and the same quantities of land adjacent thereto, as are directed to be reserved with the salt springs, in the said recited act, and such tracts within the boundaries of the same, as have been heretofore appropriated by Congress, be, and they are hereby, set apart and reserved for the purposes herein after mentioned.

Duty of the Secretary of the Treasury herein.

1800, ch. 8.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said land shall be granted only in tracts containing a quarter of the township to which they belong, lying at the corners thereof; and that the Secretary of the Treasury shall, for the space of nine months, after public notice in the several states and territories, register warrants for military services, to the amount of any one or more tracts, for any person or persons holding the same; and shall immediately after the expiration of the said time, proceed to determine, by lot, to be drawn in the presence of the secretaries of state and of war, the priority of location of the said registered warrants; and the person or persons holding the same, shall severally make their locations, after the lots shall be proclaimed, on a day to be previously fixed in the before mentioned notice; in failure of which, they shall be postponed in locating such warrants, to all other persons holding registered warrants: And the patents for all lands located under the authority of this act, shall be granted in the manner directed by the before mentioned act, without requiring any fee therefor.

Priority of location how determined, and patents granted.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That after the time limited for making the locations, as aforesaid, any person or persons holding warrants, of the before mentioned description, sufficient to cover any one or more tracts, as aforesaid, shall be at liberty to make their locations, on any tract or tracts not before located.

Privilege to certain persons holding warrants,

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all the lands set apart by the first section of this act, which shall remain unlocated on the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred, shall be released from the said reservation, and shall be at the free disposition of the United States, in like manner as any other vacant territory of the United States. And all warrants or claims for lands on account of military services, which shall not, before the day aforesaid, be registered and located, shall be forever barred.

and lands unlocated after the 1st January, to be at disposition of United States.

Claims limited.
Post, p. 724.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said surveyor general be, and he is hereby, required to cause to be surveyed three several tracts of land, containing four thousand acres each, at Shoenbrun, Gnadenhutten, and Salem; being the tracts formerly set apart, by an ordinance of Congress of the third of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight, for the society of United Brethren for propagating the gospel among the heathen; and to issue a patent or patents for the said three tracts to the said society, in trust, for the uses and purposes in the said ordinance set forth.

Three tracts to be surveyed for Society for propagating the Gospel among the heathen.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That all navigable streams or rivers within the territory to be disposed of, by virtue of this act, shall be deemed to be and remain public highways. And that, in all cases, where the opposite banks of any stream not navigable shall belong to different persons, the stream and the bed thereof shall be common to both.

Reservations.

Widow's Application for Confederate Pension

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Montgomery

I, Mrs. A. Mc'Gary. do hereby make application to the Comptroller of Public Accounts for a pension, to be granted me under the Act passed by the Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, and approved April 7, A D. 1913, on the following grounds:

I am the widow of Austin.Mc'Gary. deceased, who departed this life on the 15 day of June, A. D. 28, in the county of Harris in the State of Texas.

I have not remarried since the death of my said husband,* and I do solemnly swear that I was never divorced from my said husband, and that I never voluntarily abandoned him during his life, but remained his true, faithful and lawful wife up to the date of his death. I was married to him on the 25th day of June, A. D. 1898, in the county of Madison. in the State of Texas.*

My husband, the said Austin. Mc'Gary., enlisted and served in the military service of the Confederate States during the war between the States of the United States and he did not desert the Confederate service. I have been a resident of the State of Texas since prior to January 1, A. D. 1910, and have been continuously since a citizen of the State of Texas. I do further state that I do not receive from any source whatever money or other means of support amounting in value above the sum of $300.00 per annum, nor do I own in my own right, nor does anyone hold in trust for my benefit or use, estate or property, either real, personal or mixed, either in fee or for life, of the value of one thousand dollars, exclusive of the home of the value of not over $2000; nor do I receive any aid or pension from any other State of the United States, and I do further state that the answers given to the following questions are true:

1. What is your age, and date of birth? Nov the 29th 1859.- 69 years
2. Where were you born? Castillian Springs. Miss.
3. How long have you resided in the State of Texas? Since 1866.
4. How long have you resided in the county of your present residence? seven years.
5. What is your postoffice address? Willis. Texas.
6. Have you applied for a pension under the Confederate pension law and been rejected? No

If rejected, state when and where

7. Did your husband draw a pension? yes If so, give his file number 40738
8. What is your husband's full name? Austin. Mc'Gary.
9. In what State was your busband's command originally organized? Texas.
10. How long did your husband serve? If known to you, give date of enlistment and discharge See file No 40738
11. What was the name or letter of the company, or number of the regiment in which your husband served? If he was transferred from one branch of service to another, give time of transfer, description of command and time of service. (If applicant's husband was a pensioner give his file number, which is evidence sufficient for proof of service.) 40738
12. Name branch of service in which your husband served, whether infantry, cavalry, artillery, or the navy, or if commissioned as an officer by the President, his rank and line of duty, or if detailed for special service, under the law of conscription, the nature of such service, and time of service.

TX

13. Do you own any property other than that rendered for taxes in your county? If so, state value of same and county where located No
14. Have you transferred to another any property of any kind for the purpose of becoming a beneficiary under this law? No

Wherefore your petitioner prays that her application for a pension may be approved and such other proceedings he had in the premises as required by law.

Honorable Robert Calvert
State Comptroller
Austin, Texas

Dear Mr. Calvert:

In the enclosed form a warrant for the 'current' month was mentioned. My Mother received the warrant for October, which was immediately deposite to her account and was immediately consumed, along with about $600 per month, extra, which her children gladly contributed to her care. Since her death occurred on the 18th of October, should some of her warrant for October be returned to you? Please let me know.

She has not, so far, received any warrant for November and I do not think she will, for I wrote you as soon as I could, notifying you of her death.

Very truly yours,

Mrs. W. P. McComb

Dear Mrs. McComb:

I am in receipt of your application for Mortuary Warrant on account of the death of Mrs. A. McGary, a Confederate Pensioner which occurred on October 18, 1959.

A Mortuary Warrant will be issued and mailed to you in the amount $200.00 to help defray the funeral expense on or about the latter part of November. Thexe warrants are mailed out on the last of the month.

You ask if some of her warrant for October be returned. Mrs. McGary did not receive a warrant for October 30, 1959 as we received your letter of October 27th notifying this office of her death on October 18th. Under the law, a monthly warrant shall not issue for the month in which the pensioner's death occurs, but the Mortuary Warrant for $200.00 issues in the place thereof. The November warrant has not been issued and will not be issued.

No further payments will be due the estate of ~~Mrs.~~ Mrs. McGary except the Mortuary Warrant and her estate is in no way indebted to the State of Texas. The Mortuary Warrant for $200.00 will be made payable to you and you may handle it as you see fit in paying any expense that might be outstanding, if there is any, otherwise it become a part of her estate.

For your information, I enclose a copy of the Mortuary Warrant Law.

Dear Sir:

This is to notify you of the death of my Mother, Mrs. Austin (Lillian Otey) McGary formerly of 1709 Yale Street, Houston, Texas. She has been receiving the monthly pension given to each widow of Confederate Veterans. She passed away on the 18th of October, 1959.

I have understood, from her, that there is an amount given upon the death of the widow of a veteran, to help defray funeral expenses. If this is true, I should be glad to receive it to help with her expense.

I do not know how you handle this check, since my Mother is deceased. Her business has been in my hands for several years because of her blindness. Her account is listed as follows:

Mrs. A. McGary
Mrs. W. P. McComb in the First National Bank of Conroe, Texas.

You could send it to the bank marked"for deposit only" or send it to me in care of the president of the bank as follows:

Mr. Seth Dorbandt, President
First National Bank For Mrs. W. P. McComb
Conroe, Texas.

She arranged with the Bank to handle her account as listed for the survivor to be able to continue writing checks upon the account

Thank you for your courtesy to her in the past .

Very truly yours,

Mrs. W. P. McComb

Gentlemen:

My mother, Mrs. A. McGary of 1709 Yale Street, Houston, Texas receives a pension from your office each month. She is the widow of A. McGary, a Confederate veteran. She is soon to be ninety-nine years of age.

She has read that President Eisenhower signed the bill to give a pension from the government to the widows of Confederate veterans. She was told, by Senator Lyndon Johnson, to fill out a blank that he obtained for her. In order to fill out this bill she will need all necessary information from the records in your office. I will appreciate your sending them to her at the above address as soon as you can. She is in the hospital now because of a broken wrist and really needs the money.

Thank you for the courtesy of sending the needed information to her. (at the address given above)

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your application for Confederate Pension, but cannot approve same on account of your failure to furnish required proof of service in the form of affidavit executed by parties personally knowing of the services rendered by you.

There seems to be a conflict between your statement, regarding taxable values, and the certificate of your County Tax Assessor. Your statement that you have property assessed, exclusive of your homestead, at $220.00, while certificate of your Tax Assessor states that you have property other than your homestead valued at $1720.00.

On receipt of proof of service and corrected Tax Certificate your application will be taken up for further consideration.

TO WHOME IT MAY CONCERN

My two brothers, James Wright Gillespie and Thomas H Gillespie were very young, only Sixteen and Seventeen years old respectively, so my father sent them from Tennessee to Mississippi to school but instead they joined the Confederate Army and three days after returned home on furlough for one hour, hoping to get more suitable clothes ,and had been in three battles, one each day since joining the army; They only remained an hour on their furlough before rejoining the army, and we did not see them again untill they returned home /three years later at the close of the war. They were in Bedford Forrests Cavalry, This is to my certain knowledge

Re: Mrs. Fannie McGary Gillespie
Deceased widow of James Wright
Gillespie. Pension File No. 51862.

Dear Mrs. Hopkins:

The records of this office show Mrs. Fannie McGary Gillespie, widow of James Wright Gillespie, filed application for Confederate Pension in May, 1938 on the military service record of her deceased husband.

The application for pension was approved under Pension File No. 51862 Colorado County. Mrs. Gillespie stated in her application that her deceased husband was a member of the 7th Tennessee Regiment of Forest's Cavalry, Confederate States Army. He enlisted in 1861 and served until 1865. A private.

The application for pension of Mrs. Gillespie was approved on the affidavits of witnesses who claimed to have personal knowledge of the service in the Confederate Army of Mr. Gillespie.

Yours very truly,

Geo. H. Sheppard
Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Dear Mrs. Gillespie:

I acknowledge receipt of your letter of April 29, 1939 in which you state you are contemplating leaving for a visit to Arizona about May 15, 1939 and request that your next warrant be mailed to you in Arizona.

You are advised that if you should leave the State of Texas you should notify this office of the exact date on which you leave. The law permits Confederate Pensioners to temporarily leave Texas and remain for a period of not more than six months, during which time your right as a pensioner would not be effected except that no warrants will be issued to you while you are absent. But if you should return to Texas within six months from the date of leaving then after your return back warrants for the time you have been absent will be issued to you. But if for any reason you should remain out of Texas longer than six months then your name will be removed from the pension roll and no further warrants will be issued to you.

After your return to Texas you should immediately notify this office of the exact date of your return, as no further warrants will be issued to you until you notify this office you have returned to Texas within the six months.

Dear Mrs. Gillespie:

Replying to your letter of April 28 enclosing a statement signed and sworn to by Mrs. Martha Gillespie Sale which statement was intended to prove the military service of James Wright Gillespie as a Confederate Soldier.

Mrs. Sales statement is simply a statement that she has positive knowledge of her brothers, James Wright Gillespie's service as a Confederate Soldier, but she does not state any fact or the source of her knowledge, or how she knows he served. She must state what she knows of his service and also state from what source she gained information that her brother served as a Confederate Soldier.

If the service or Mr. Gillespie can be proven as required by the law, your application will have further consideration.

I am again returning the application in order that you may have executed the affidavit on page 2 and also supply the other information necessary.

I have received a report from the War Department, Washington, D. C. in reply to my request for the service record of James Wright Gillespie, which report reads as follows:

> "From the data given, this office has been unable to identify the service, if any, in the Confederate States Army of the within names James Wright Gillespie."

The above report from Washington, as you will see, fails to make proof of the service of Mr. Gillespie.

Dear Sir.

I was quite disappointed on reading yours of May 2nd. I had confidently expected a full confirmation of my claim for a Confederate pension. Will it expedite the matter for me to state that my husband James Wright Gillespie was a member of the Confederate Veterans Camp in San Antonio in good standing when he died in 1910, & that he is buried in the Confederate Cemetery in San Antonio? Also, that his picture & sketch of his life was published in a magazine issued by the 2 Confederate Veterans for several years. The copy of the magazine was perhaps the August or September number of 1910. I have a copy, I mention it but have not access to it here, as it is packed away, perhaps in El Paso. Perhaps you would find it in Confederate archives preserved in Austin. Will my affidavit to the above facts facilitate matters? Will you kindly advise me in the matter giving verbal copy of what shall be testified: Remember I am in my 90th year. Neither my husband nor I ever asked for a pension, and that in addition to Confederate honors, I am a daughter of Isaac McGary a soldier of San Jacinto. They are honoring those heroes the other day, why not grant what Isaac McGary's daughter, old, helpless & penniless is justly claiming.

Yours respectfully
Mamie McGary Gillespie

3 If you require another affidavit from Mattie Gillespie Cole, younger sister of James Wright Gillespie as to his service in the Confederate army, please write and send me the exact wording of what will meet your requirement. I am in actual need of this pension

Dear Sir,

In reply to yours just received, I went to my son to take care of his children when his wife had a nervous breakdown & was sent to a sanitarium in 1913- I stayed a year & a half till she was well enough to come home, when I returned to Texas. After this she had to be sent to the sanitarium several times when I d returned to care for the children - I do not remember these dates. In between these break downs I would return to Texas- Mr. Sheppard I believe you must be convinced of the justice of my claim to the pension, and that your recommendation

BAYLESS, Alfred Ayers

There have been comparatively few to sound the praise of the brave and sturdy pioneer though he is certainly, deserving of at least a little space in the chronicles of the noble. To him more than to any other is civilization indebted; for it was he that blazed the way and acted as vanguard for the mighty army of progress that within the last century has conquered Indiana's wilderness and transformed it into one of the fairest and most enlightened of the American commonwealths.

One of these sterling pioneers is Alfred Ayers Bayless, a venerable and honored citizen of Frankfort, Clinton county, who has passed his eighty-eighth milepost and is yet hale and hearty because he has lived an active, conservative and even-tempered life, free from the usual vices that wreck so large a portion of mankind. He was for a long lapse of years one of the most widely known contractors and builders in this section of the Hosier (sic) state. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, February 17, 1825. He is a son of Platt and Frances (MCGARY) BAYLESS, the father born in New Jersey in 1794, and the mother born in Kentucky in 1796. The paternal grandparents were New Jersey farmers and on the mother's side were natives of Ireland. Platt Bayless was one of a family of nine children. He and Frances MCGARY were married on March 2, 1812, and to them seven children were born. Platt Bayless was a soldier in the war of I812. After the war he followed farming in the summer time and the shoemaker's trade during the winter months. Major Platt Bayless, an officer in the Revolutionary war and an aide to George Washington, was the great-grandfather of Alfred A. Bayless, of this review. He mortgaged his farm at Baskingridge, New Jersey, in order to obtain means to help support the Patriot army in the field.

Alfred A. Bayless grew up amid early pioneer conditions, and he received only about six weeks schooling in the winter, between corn husking and sugar making time. In 1833, when a small boy, he came with his parents overland from the old home in Ohio, to Tippecanoe county, Indiana, traveling by wagon to Cincinnati, thence by boat down the Ohio river to the mouth of the Wabash, and up the latter stream to Vincennes, where the boat was burned. From there they proceeded by wagon to Tippecanoe county, the trip from Butler county, Ohio, requiring about six weeks. Upon their arrival in Tippecanoe county they had with them the only salt in the county, having brought two barrels with them. The wagons hauling grain to Chicago had gone on their regular trips and had not returned with supplies, about three weeks being required to go to the lake city and return, The family located on a farm about seven miles east of Lafayette, near the village of Dayton. Later the elder Bayless purchased a farm of eighty acres, for which he paid the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. It lay on the line between Tippecanoe and Clinton counties, and this they developed from the woods into a productive farm in due course of time by hard work.

Alfred A. Bayless assisted with the hard work on the home place when a boy, remaining there until he was twenty years of age. He served as an apprentice in a carpenter shop for two years, for which he was paid five dollars a month and board, and the second year ten dollars a month and board. In 1845 he went to Lafayette, where he worked at his trade and received a dollar and twenty-five cents a day. He put in the first plate-glass windows ever used in Lafayette, making the sash for the whole front by hand. He also turned out the first machine-made sash used in that city, the machine having been run by horse-power.

On May 26, 1847, Mr. Bayless married Harriett PARKE, a daughter of John and Elizabeth PARKE, he a native of Pennsylvania, and the mother of New Jersey. Elizabeth PARKE's maiden name was ANDERSON. Mrs. Harriett Bayless is one of a family of four children all still living in 1913.

To Mr. and Mrs. Bayless six children have been born, four of whom are living at this writing: Mrs. C. B. SINE, of Indianapolis; Sylvester, of Memphis, Tennessee; William O., also of Memphis; and Laura E., of Frankfort. Mrs. Sine has two daughters, Mrs. Harry MCLELAND, who has two children, George Edward and Charles Alfred; and Mrs. Edward MAURER, who also has two children, Russell and Frances. Sylvester had three children: Lenora, married to E. C. BAILEY, of Tuscola, Illinois, has two children, twins, David Bayless and Edward Ozias; and Eva, married to J. C. CARSON, of Lafayette, who died, leaving one child, Olive Crooks CARSON. John Alfred Bayless is a clerk in a wholesale grocery in Champaign, Illinois. W. 0. Bayless and Laura E. Bayless have remained unmarried. The latter is reporter for the Clinton circuit court.

On Christmas day, 1847, Alfred A. Bayless was working in a pork house in Lafavette at one dollar a day and dinner, unheading barrels. He had his choice of either one hundred pounds of pork tenderloin or one dollar a day in cash. After living in Lafavette two years he removed to Dayton, where he remained until 1869. Then he went to Cass county and engaged in the saw mill business, operating a mill two years, when it was burned. He then moved to Logansport, where did contracting until 1877, in which year he moved to Frankfort, Clinton county. His first contract work here was the Coulter House. He also built the Coulter opera house and many other large buildings in this city, which will long remain as monuments to his skill and honesty as a builder. He built the third ward school building twice. He remained in the carpenter and contracting business with much success, his services being in great demand until 1897, when he retired from contracting owing to advancing age, but retained a work shop in the basement of his home, where he still makes screens and ladders.

Mr. Bayless is a master Mason, being the oldest member of the Frankfort Lodge. He was reared in the Presbyterian faith, and he has attended Sunday school regularly, seldom missing a Sunday for the long period of seventy-seven years, starting when a barefoot boy of eleven years. He still has a testament which he received for memorizing verses when a little boy. In politics, he votes the Prohibition ticket. He is the oldest Bayles (sic) living. Pages 887 – 889 Source* II

BAYLESS, Samuel O.
HON. SAMUEL O. BAYLESS, a prominent member of the Frankfort bar and of the bar of the supreme court of the state, is a son of John N. and Christiana (COSNER) BAYLESS, and was born in Tippecanoe county, Ind., June 24, 1848. John M. Bayless was born in Butler county, Ohio, January 3, 1813, and was the son of Platt and Fannie (McGARY) BAYLESS, who were born and married in New Jersey, where Platt Bayless was engaged in farming. In 1802 they moved to Butler county, Ohio, and there remained until 1833, when they came to Indiana and settled in Tippecanoe county, and in the eastern part of which Platt Bayless entered 160 acres of forest land, which he cleared and cultivated until his death, which occurred in 1856, his widow surviving until 1861. They were the parents of the following children: John M., Sarah Ann, wife of Ezra BUSH, now decassed (sic); Cyrus; Martha J., wife of William H. SIMS, of Mulberry, Clinton county; Platt, of Lincoln, Neb.; and Samuel, who went to Texas before the opening of the late war, and of whom all trace is lost.

John M. Bayless was only twenty years of age when he came to Indiana with his parents. At the age of twenty-one he engaged in shoemaking, at which he worked in the village of Dayton, Tippecanoe county, until 1842, when he purchased land and engaged in farming in same county, which vocation he followed until March, 1879, when he moved to Frankfort and retired from active labor. His first farm comprised eighty acres only, but before he retired he had increased it to 300 acres, and had erected one of the finest farm dwellings in the county. During his residence in Tippecanoe county he assisted in the organization of the Tippecanoe & Clinton county Farmer's Mutual Insurance; was elected its first president and held his position until his retirement from the farm. He was also for a number of years president of the board of trustees of the Dayton seminary. The first marriage of John M. Bayless took place in Tippecanoe county, August 25, 1839, to Harriet Isabella PAIGE, who was a member of the first white family that settled in that county, and was of English extraction, and to this marriage were born three children – two sons who died in infancy, and a daughter, Sarah, who grew to maturity, but now is also deceased. The mother of these children died November 3, 1845. The second marriage of John M. Bayless took place, in Tippecanoe county, July 25, 1847, to Christiana Cosner, a native of Virginia, born July 6, 1826, and the daughter of Adam and Margaret (MICHAELS) COSNER. To this felicitous union were born eight children, all of whom are deceased save two – Samuel O., the subject proper of this sketch, and John Q., of Frankfort. The greatly lamented John M. Bayless departed this life, at Frankfort, October 3d, 1892. In his religious belief he was a life-long and consistent Universalist; never bitter in the advocacy of his views, but broad and comprehensive in his love for mankind, with charity and tolerance for all. He was a Mason, belonging to the Dayton lodge, of which he was an active member at the time of his death. This lodge had charge of the burial ceremonies. In politics Mr. Bayless was a republican from the organization of that party. At the beginning of the war, having passed the age of active service, he was appointed and served as enrolling officer in Tippecanoe county. He was an ardent union and anti-slavery man and rendered material assistance to the cause. Mr. Bayless was a kind, gentle and genial companion, a true steadfast friend, and honest man free from deception of any kind. His integrity was spotless and irreproachable.

Samuel O. Bayless, the subject of this biography, was reared on the home farm, alternating his labor with study. His preliminary education was received at the common schools of Tippecanoe county, supplemented by a course of one year in the high school of Frankfoot (sic), Clinton county, and a year at Lombard University, Galesburg, ILL., where he took a special course in political economy. In October, 1868, at the age of twenty, he entered the law department of the Michigan university at Ann Arbor, and up to this time had never entered a court room nor even read a law book. After a course of two years, he graduated (March 27, 1870), and went to Selma, Ala., where he practiced until the fall of the same year, when he settled in Frankfort, Ind., where he has met with a success unrivaled. In 1871 he formed a co-partnership with Judge J. SUIT. This partnership continued until January 1, 1873, when the partnership was discontinued and he practiced alone until November, 1874.At that time he associated himself in the practice with Hon. A. E. PAIGE, under the firm-name Paige and Bayless. This partnership continued until the election of Mr. Paige to the position of judge of the Clinton circuit court, in October, 1884. The firm did a large and lucrative business during the years of its existence. In May, 1885, he associated with him W. H. RUSSELL. Esq., under the firm name Bayless and Russell. This partnership continued one year and again, in January, 1889, Charles G. GUENTHER became the partner of Mr. Bayless, under the firm name of Bayless & Guenther. This relations still exists. To revert, however, to the initiatory practice of Mr. Bayless in Frankfort, it may be mentioned that it was soon manifest that Mr. Bayless had a peculiar faculty for handling legal affairs of corporations. He was selected as local attorney for the railroad companies then constructing their lines through the county, and his reputation was soon established on a permanency, and his corporation business has steadily and rapidly increased from year to year, until he now stands without a peer in Indiana in this particular class of litigation.

In 1884 he accepted the position of general attorney for the Indianapolis and Chicago division of the Monon route, or Louisville, New Albany & Chicago railway company, which position he held two years; in 1886 he was appointed general attorney for the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City, or "Clover Leaf" railroad company, for Indiana, which office he held until 1892, when he accepted the position of assistant general solicitor for the same company, and had entire charge of the litigation of the company in Indiana and Illinois; in May, 1893, he was appointed assistant general counsel for the receiver of this company, which position he still holds. Mr. Bayless is also special attorney for the Logansport and Terre Haute division of the Vandalia line, and the local attorney with the Lake Erie & Western railroad company. Mr. Bayless is also called upon frequently to act as counsel for the "Big Four", or Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis company, as well as for the Wabash company as local counsel. Beside his railroad connection, he is attorney for the Central Union Telephone company in Indiana, and has been the counsel for the water-works, gas and other corporations at Frankfort. In March, 1894, he was admitted to the bar of the United States supreme court.

Mr. Bayless was most happily united in marriage, in Clinton county, Novenber 21, 1872, to Miss Emma D. Clark, daughter of Dr. John M. and Sarah V. (GILKERSON) CLARK, prominent residents of Clinton county. This lady was born August 18, 1852, is highly accomplished, and is a member of the Presbyterian church. Two children have blessed this union, and are named Coralyn C. and Florence G. Mr. Bayless is a thirty-second degree Mason, a K. of P., a member of the I. O. R. M. and the B. & P. O. E. In politics he is a republican, and in 1874 was elected mayor of Frankfort, and filled the office for three consecutive terms of two years each. For a number of years he was the chairman of the republican county central committee, and a member of the republican state central committee. His name has frequently been mentioned as a candidate for the position of congressman on the republican ticket in this congressional district. This, however, he has always declined on account of his extensive law practice. It is needless here to comment upon the career or character of such a man as Samuel O. Bayless. pp. 579 – 581 Source I A photo of Mr. Bayless is included.

CYRUS BAYLESS is a representative of one of the old and honored pioneer families to Tippecanoe County, a son of PLATT BAYLESS, who was born and reared in the State of New Jersey. When a young man, PLATT BAYLESS removed with his father, SAMUEL BAYLESS, to Ohio, the latter living in Butler County, that State, until his death. PLATT BAYLESS learned the trade of a shoemaker, but his life occupation was farming. He was married in Ohio, to MISS FANNY McGARY, a lady of Irish descent, and of the eight children born to them, five yet survive -- SARAH ANN, wife of EZRA BUSH, of Tippecanoe, Indiana; CYRUS, the subject of this sketch; JOHN and ALFRED, living in Frankfort, this State; MARTHA JANE, wife of WILLIAM H. SIMS, of Thorntown, Indiana; PLATT a resident of Lincoln, Nebraska. The father lived in Butler County, Ohio, until the fall of 1832 when he came to Tippecanoe County, Indiana, on horse-back, to see the country, returning to Ohio the same fall, and in the latter part of March, 1833, he started with his family from Cincinnati by boat down the Ohio to the mouth of the Wabash, then up the Wabash to Vincennes. The low water of the Wabash very much delayed their progress, and on reaching Vincennes, he was compelled to hire teams to take them the remainder of the journey, being on the way two months before reaching La Fayette. This place was then a small village, much of the present site of the city being covered with timber.

PLATT BAYLESS, like most of the early settlers, was not possessed of a large share of this world's goods, and the expenses of the journey to this county had exhausted his supply of cash to such an extent that he decided to rent land for a hile instread of buying as he at first intended to do. He accordingly lived on a rented farm near Dayton for three years, and during this time he purchased the land that afterward became his homestead, which is now occupied by his son CYRUS. In 1836 he settled on this land with his family, their first dwelling on this place being a small log cabin, erected by the sons, CYRUS and ALFRED.
The family occupied this cabin until the following spring, and at once began the task of clearing the land, enduring many of the hardships and privations incident to pioneer life. Deprived of all the conveniences of the present day the old pioneers bore their part bravely, and the present generation are reaping the results of their toil. Here PLATT BAYLESS lived and labored to make a home for his family, until his death, which occurred in 1852, his widow surviving several years. Both were honored and respected members of society, and are still remembered by the early settlers.

CYRUS BAYLESS, whose name heads this sketch, was born in Butler County, Ohio, August 11, 1821, being twelve years of age when he came with his parents to Tippecanoe County. He was reared amid the wild surroundings of pioneer life, and has a clear remembrance of the country as it looked fifty years ago. he has witnessed the many wonderful changes that have transpired during this time, and has always taken an active interest in its development. He was reared to the vocation of a farmer, his youth being spent in assisting his father clear and improve the homestead which he now occupies. At the age of twenty-one years he went to Dayton to learn the cooper's trade, which he followed about seven years, working in Dayton and La Fayette. He was married March 28, 1844, to MISS CAROLINE CORY, born in Ohio, in 1824, a daughter of DANIEL W. and ELIZABETH (MOREHOUSE) CORY, early settlers of this county. MR. CORY came with his family from Carlisle, Clarke County, Ohio, to Tippecnoe County, Indiana, in 1836, and settled in La Fayette, where he kept the American Hotel for a time, and later the Wabash House, near the present site of the Lahr House. His wife, the mother of MRS. CORY, died in Ohio, in 1834, and he was subsequently married to JULIA A. CLOSPILL, who is still living. MR. CORY died in La Fayette, in 1845. By his first marriage he had eleven children, all of whom are deceased but MRS. BAYLESS. By his second marriage he had two children, they also being deceased. MR. BAYLESS after the death of this father, bought the home farm of 119 acres, which is one of the best farms in his neighborhood. He has a fine brick residence, erected in 1861, and his barns and other farm buildings are correspondingly good. Here he and his wife are surrounded with all the comforts of life, happy in the consciousness of a useful and well spent life. Both are liberal in their religious views, they and their family being members of the Universalist church. They are the parents of five children -- LOTT, HARRIET, PLATT, MARTHA S. and FRANCES C., all married but MARTHA. In politics MR. BAYLESS is a Republican, and is classed among the representative men of his township.

Mary,

This is a fascinating discovery, and the timing works. John purchased his land in 1797. At the beginning of the Isaac McGary chapter that I sent you, there is a short bibliography of works about the early distribution of land in Ohio. It may be that one of those will tell us more. In addition, I suspect that there are histories of the United Brethren that might be illuminating. If you come across a potentially interesting source that is only available at the Library of Congress, let me know and I will go take a look at it.

This weekend, I will see if I can get a full copy of the 1796 statute.

You mentioned that John McGary received the land in Ohio, quite early, from John C. Symmes. I just checked the many land patent records in Ohio for John Symmes. Very interesting that the patents state the following on all records:

KNOW YE, That in pursuance of the Act of Congress passed on the first of June 1796, entitled "An Act regulating the grants of Land appropriated for Military services, and for the society of the United Brethren for propagating the gospel among the Heathens........

Now I think we can have an idea how and why John McGary received / purchased his Ohio land. Thanks to President John Adams, the United Brethren was to receive land, along with those who served in the military. I was very surprised to read the patents and see that Act of Congress. On the 1850 census of Marshall Co. IN, John McGary, age 98 is listed as a U B Minister.

As I mentioned, we are very stranded within our home, due to three inches of solid ice. When the big thaw happens, I will be able to do a bit more research at our public library.
Will not share the material with anyone........as you are aware, sharing with some people seems to give "them the right" to publish or place the info in view of everyone. Isaac's daughter Fannie (named for her grandmother and her aunt), who left a long memoir, has an account of a trip that Isaac took to Ohio in 1856 to visit his sisters, the only such trip home of which there is any record. My snail mail address is P.O. Box 1048, Columbus, TX 78934 or

I just received the following e-mail from another person and was going to pass it on to you to hear what you thought about it.

Dear Mr. Gillespie,

Two years ago, you posted information about Viva P. McComb on the McGary Family Genealogical Forum in response to a query about Isaac McGary.
"Aunt Viva," as my family refers to her, is my great-aunt, and Isaac McGary is my second great-grandfather.

I am writing a book on the life of Isaac McGary and, as part of my research, am trying to locate any correspondence of Isaac's or of his children, Rachel Francis ("Fannie"), Austin, and Marion. Because there is a link between the Gillespies and the McGarys, I am writing to ask whether you know of anyone who might possess such family letters, and, if so, whether you would put me in touch with them.

Dear Ms. Nunneley,

In 2003, you posted the email below on the McGary Family Genealogical Forum:

Searching for info for Isaac McGary, born 19 Jan 1800 in Butler Co. OH to John and Fannie McGary. Married #1 Eleanor Markland (dau of Matthew Markland of Butler Co. OH)/married by 1822 per Butler Co. deed, married #2 Elinor Powell on 14 Jan 1830 in Austin Co. TX, married #3 Elizabeth B. Word (a widow) on 17 Feb 1842 in Montgomery Co. TX. Only know children from last marriage, Marion McGary b ca 1843; Austin McGary b 6 Feb 1846; Rachel McGary b ca 1849; and Fanny McGary b ca 1851. Isaac McGary fought at the Battle of San Jacinto. He was sheriff of Montgomery Co. TX and after the formation of Walker Co. TX, he was the first county clerk. Apparently died in Galveston, TX while on a business trip. Any information will be appreciated.

I have done a good deal of work on Isaac McGary and would be pleased to exchange information with you.

Sincerely,

Dear Merritt,

Sending a few items pertaining to John McGary. His will is quite interesting and leads one to need more research.

The list of children for John and Francis McGary is, probably, not in birth order, but may be close. I used the John's will to place the births, as if he named them in their birth order. As you know, this is not always the case.

I have included in the list of children, the name of Elizabeth "Betsey" McGary who married John Martin in 1812 in Butler Co. OH, without any proof. She is not named in her father's will, nor are any of her descendants named. She is included because of the location and date of her marriage and the lack of any other McGary family with a daughter who might have married at the same time period as other children of John and Francis. There were three John Martins in Butler Co. OH in 1820, so Elizabeth McGary might have been the wife of one of those men. My search for Elizabeth and John Martin has not produced any information over several years of looking….

I will send, at a later date, information that I have found concerning the children. On some, I have quite a lot of information.

Your contact with me has made my interest in my McGary family come back to life. I had not worked on this family for quite a long time, and was surprised with all of the late on-line information now available.

The enclosed will allow you to up-date and correct some of the information for your book.

I will probably send very little concerning Isaac, because I am sure you have everything I have found, and much more.

Later,

Mary, that is me. My OLD e-mail was "bgilles@wcnet.net"; my CURRENT e-mail is "bobgillespie@attwb.net".
My snail mail address is P.O. Box 1048, Columbus, TX 78934 or

I just received the following e-mail from another person and was going to pass it on to you to hear what you thought about it.

Dear Mr. Gillespie,

Two years ago, you posted information about Viva P. McComb on the McGary
Family Genealogical Forum in response to a query about Isaac McGary. "Aunt Viva," as my family refers to her, is my great-aunt, and Isaac McGary is my second great-grandfather.

I am writing a book on the life of Isaac McGary and, as part of my research, am trying to locate any correspondence of Isaac's or of his children, Rachel Francis ("Fannie"), Austin, and Marion. Because there is a link between the Gillespies and the McGarys, I am writing to ask whether you know of anyone who might possess such family letters, and, if so, whether you would put me in touch with them.

Looking for info on Isaac McGary, b. about 1800 in Lemon Township, Butler County, Ohio. He married 3 times: 1) Eleanor Maryland, 1 child Fannie McGary, 2) Elizabeth Brazelton Visere, and 3) Eleanor Powell on Jan 14,1830 in Austin County, Texas. My main interest is in Eleanor Powell and since she too was from Ohio , I was hoping someone could help make a connection.

Mary,

Thank you very much for this information, which was a real revelation. I had no idea that most of Fort Bend's documents were available online. That was certainly not the case a few years ago when I last ordered materials from there. I found all the Fort Bend documents referred to in Frank Deffes' email except the letters of administration, which are listed on the website but are not available online. Indeed, I have not yet had a chance to go through all the documents that I downloaded. But this does seem to be the key to the mystery of what became of Eleanor Powell McGary. Interestingly, there seems to be an extra Elizabeth Powell child: Samuel, the only son; Eleanor or Ellen, who married Isaac McGary; Elizabeth, who married Leeman Kelsey; and, apparently, a Julie or Julie Ann. Yet in her registration in Austin's Colony and in her petition for a Mexican land grant, Elizabeth Powell says clearly that she has three children.

Best regards,
Merritt

In an e-mail dated, 6 Jun 2002, from Frank Deffes (in part):

On April 26, 1838 Ellen married James W. McClellan in Fort Bend County Texas. "They had one son, Joseph Powell McClellan born about 1841. In the 1850 Texas census, Joseph Powell McClellan was enumerated with his Aunt & Uncle Edwin Belden and Elizabeth Powell Kelsey Belden. He died at a young age, killed by a freed slave. I have been unable to find anything on Eleanor or James W. McClellan after the birth of their son"

Since the administration of the estate of Eleanor Powell McGary McClellan(d) is dated in 1840, the child was surely born in 1840 or earlier.
One of the deeds that I viewed at the Fort Bend Co. site which may have been dated about 1924 and appeared to be clearing a title to the lands of Isaac McGary contained many, many names. Included in the long list of names was that of Edwin and Elizabeth Belden..........rather interesting. I did not copy the deed, but recall that the land was also called that of "Isaac McGary and Mrs. Isaac McGary". Apparently, the Beldens moved to Louisiana, for I also noted a power of attorney (date not noted) pertaining to the power of attorney and stating that they were then of Louisiana, apparently.
Wish Isaac had stayed in Ohio where research is so much easier................of course, that would not make a very interesting book !!

I have seen nothing that suggests solidly to me that Eleanor married James McClelland, although I have seen references to the marriage. I didn't focus on it because there are other marriages of Eleanor McGarys around the same time. The timing would be about right; although Isaac does attest in early 1838 (in order to claim his headright labor) that he is married. I will check into the administration of Eleanor McClelland and see what I can find. It would, among other things, reveal whether she had any children by Isaac. Isaac's daughter remembers a visit by a son from a previous marriage. I've never known whether it was his son from his Ohio Eleanor or his Texas Eleanor marriage, although the latter is more probable.

It's a handsome document I have the deed of sale of his league to an Ira Lewis, from which was excluded 444 acres that he earlier sold to his brother-in-law, who married Eleanor's 16-year-old sister. I don't have a deed for the 444 ac sale.

Subj: Re: Obituary - Rev. John McGary
Date: 7/31/01 12:30:22 PM Central Daylight Time
From: Nunne002
To: krettinger@hoosierlink.net

I have very little on Rev. John McGary. I do not even know the relationship of Sanford and Sarah Gordon, with whom he was living in 1850. I have done some "looking" into this Gordon family and was surprised to find that Sanford Gordon married Sarah Wright in Butler Co. OH on 25 Feb 1832. John McGary was from Butler Co. OH. About all I have is:

John McGary married Francis (per deeds in Butler Co. OH in the 1820s)
  Had known issue from Butler Co. marriages:
  Jane married Frederick Troxel / 15 Oct 1807, per estate settlement in Fayette Co. OH - Jane died by 1836, leaving four children
  Francis "Fanny" married Platt Bayless / to Tippecanoe Co. IN - have quite a lot on family
  Elizabeth "Betsey" married John Martin / 30 Jan 1812 - have never found them
  Martha "Patsey" married Edward Popejoy / 13 Jan 1814 - to Fayette Co. OH - My g-g-grandparents........have great deal of info on them
  Isaac married #1 Eleanor Markland, marriage not found in Butler Co. Isaac was in Battle of San Jacinto (Texas) in 1836 - have some info on him, but none of his children from his first marriage. Marriage proven by Butler Co. deeds.

The only birthdates for any of the children of Rev. John McGary are:
  Martha "Patsey" McGary Popejoy - born 19 Jul 1795 - Kentucky
  Isaac Popejoy - born 19 Jan 1800 - Cincinnati, Ohio (per his bio / San Jacinto Veterans)

As you can see, I have no where to go.......or so it seems. I have seen references in Ohio to the estate of John McGary, or in one case, Grandfather McGarys estate. All of these references pertained to the estate of others. On the 1850 census of Marshall Co. IN, John McGary was listed with a real estate value of $1000 (Sanford Gordon was shown with the same real estate value of $1000).

I have worked on this McGary line for about 25 years and have little to show for the effort. I think most genealogists hit that "snag", but never give up.

Thanks much,
Mary Nunneley

Dear Mary, Thanks so much for the info on Isaac McGary, etc. Do you have access to the deed book for Butler County, Ohio? You may have put a "crack" in my brick wall. Isaac's 2nd wife is my gg grandmother's sister. This is what I have on Eleanor Powell & Isaac McGary:

MARRIAGES BY BOND IN COLONIAL TEXAS by Bennett Smith(Ft. Worth,1972) #65 McGary-Powell marriage by bond. Marriages in colonial Texas had to be performed according to the rites of the Catholic Church to be legal. Due to the scarity of priest, the colonist devised marriages by bond as a way of allowing couples to marry. Ahune(?) 1837 law of the Republic of Texas Congress allowed those married by bond to report to an authorized person within 6 months to have their marriages legalized and children legitimized. Ellen Powell McGary petioned for divorce a week prior to this law. It seems the Senate took no action, perhaps assuming that her marriage was not technically legal (although allowed by custom), so it could be dissolved by mutal concent, without legal action; if she and McGary did not take steps to legalize the marriage under the 1837 law, it was invalid anyway.

On April 26,1838 Ellen married James W. McClellan in Fort Bend County, Texas. They had one son Joseph Powell McClellan born about 1841. In the 1850 Texas census Joseph Powell McClellan was enumerated with his Aunt & Uncle Edwin Belden and Elizabeth Powell Kelsey Belden. He died at a young age, killed by a freed slave. I have been unable to find anything on Eleanor or James W. McClellan after the birth of their son.

Do you have anything that would make you believe the Powell's were from Ohio? I have been unable to establish anything in Ohio as I do not know Eleanor's Dad's given name or her mother's maiden name, her given name is Elizabeth. Any info or suggestions would be appreciated. Since the McGary's were from Butler Co. Ohio, maybe I will search there.

Subject: RE: Isaac McGary

To: "Merritt Blakeslee" <mblakeslee@dhlaw.com>

I have no records that would suggest that John and Francis McGary had other than one son, Isaac McGary.
Some years ago, I corresponded with a man by the name of Frank Deffes of Harahan, LA. He was working on the marriages of Eleanor Powell to Isaac McGary and James W. McClelland (and possibly a first marriage to a Powell). He suggested that Isaac McGary and Eleanor Powell were married by bond # 65 in Colonial Texas records. He, also, suggested that Isaac and Eleanor did not have their marriage legalized within six months (per law in Catholic Texas) and that Eleanor then married James W. McClelland in Fort Bend Co. Texas on 26 Apr 1838. I have not been able to find the bond # 65 or the 1838 marriage. Do you have any information concerning these marriages ?? I found that Eleanor (Ellen) Powell McGary McClleland apparently died in 1840. Letters of administration, dated 7 Dec 1840, concerning the estate of Ellen McClleland were issued (Case # 71) and named the administrator as James W. McClleland (see Fort Bend records / online)
I tried to contact Mr. Deffes to inform him of my find concerning the estate of Eleanor and to ask where I might obtain a copy of Eleanor's marriage to Isaac, but the e-mail was returned as no longer valid.
Also, do you have the land records for Isaac in Fort Bend Co. TX ? You can view these online (some as late as 1924, apparently clearing titles, etc) at:

http://ccweb.co.fort-bend.tx.us/

You may already have all of this info..........

In an e-mail dated, 6 Jun 2002, from Frank Deffes (in part):

On April 26, 1838 Ellen married James W. McClellan in Fort Bend County Texas. "They had one son, Joseph Powell McClellan born about 1841. In the 1850 Texas census, Joseph Powell McClellan was enumerated with his Aunt & Uncle Edwin Belden and Elizabeth Powell Kelsey Belden. He died at a young age, killed by a freed slave. I have been unable to find anything on Eleanor or James W. McClellan after the birth of their son"

Since the administration of the estate of Eleanor Powell McGary McClellan(d) is dated in 1840, the child was surely born in 1840 or earlier.
One of the deeds that I viewed at the Fort Bend Co. site which may have been dated about 1924 and appeared to be clearing a title to the lands of Isaac McGary contained many, many names. Included in the long list of names was that of Edwin and Elizabeth Belden..........rather interesting. I did not copy the deed, but recall that the land was also called that of "Isaac McGary and Mrs. Isaac McGary". Apparently, the Beldens moved to Louisiana, for I also noted a power of attorney (date not noted) pertaining to the power of attorney and stating that they were then of Louisiana, apparently.
Wish Isaac had stayed in Ohio where research is so much easier................of course, that would not make a very interesting book !!

I have seen nothing that suggests solidly to me that Eleanor married James McClelland, although I have seen references to the marriage. I didn't focus on it because there are other marriages of Eleanor McGarys around the same time. The timing would be about right; although Isaac does attest in early 1838 (in order to claim his headright labor) that he is married. I will check into the administration of Eleanor McClelland and see what I can find. It would, among other things, reveal whether she had any children by Isaac. Isaac's daughter remembers a visit by a son from a previous marriage. I've never known whether it was his son from his Ohio Eleanor or his Texas Eleanor marriage, although the latter is more probable.

Dear Ms. Nunneley,

Your email is of great interest to me. I know a certain amount about Isaac's time in Ohio before going to Texas, and I know who Patsey McGary is. I have never been able to establish which of Patsey, Jane, Betsey, and Fannie McGary, all of whom married in the same area between 1807 and 1814, was NOT Isaac's sister.

Isaac's daughter Fannie (named for her grandmother and her aunt), who left a long memoir, has an account of a trip that Isaac took to Ohio in 1856 to visit his sisters, the only such trip home of which there is any record. But I knew nothing of John's will. Nor do I know what became of Isaac's first wife, Eleanor Markland.

You are correct that there are a certain number of errors in what little is published about Isaac McGary. I can most likely steer you away from the erroneous information.

I would be very interesting in speaking by telephone about our research if you are inclined to do so.

Best regards,

Mr. Blakeslee,
Thank you for your contact pertaining to Isaac McGary. I continue to do research on Isaac and since my original post in 2003 have made contact with Robert Gillespie of Columbus, TX who has kindly shared a great deal of information concerning Isaac, including a large number of family pictures.

I descend from Martha "Patsey" McGary (dau of John and Fanny McGary) who married Edward Popejoy on 13 Jan 1814 in Butler Co. OH. Martha is a sister of Isaac McGary.
Some of the published material concerning Isaac McGary appears to be in error. I do believe he was born on 19 Jan 1800 in Butler Co. OH and died 21 Jun1866, in probably, Galveston, TX. He had three marriages....#1 Eleanor Markland...#2 Elizabeth B. Word and probably, #3 Eleanor Powell.
With the exception of the well-known Austin McGary, I have little knowledge of his children.
The will of Isaac's father, John McGary is found at Will Book A, pages 43/44/45/46/47 in Fulton Co. IN, dated 25 Sep 1847, he apparently being a resident of Marshall Co. IN. The will of John McGary lists all of the children with the exception of Isaac. I rather wonder if the family had lost contact with Isaac since he was so early in Texas ??
I appreciate your contact and offer to share information.
Please note my new e-mail address and will soon discontinue the AOL address.

Will of John McGary will to his daughter Eleanor Gordon, $200 which she has already received + money from sale of land.
In 1850, John McGary (age 98) is living in the household of Sanford Gordon, Marshall Co. IN. A codicil to the will of John McGary (dated 12 Nov 1849) gives to Sanford Gordon $300 "if he takes care of me in the last of my life".

4. Francis "Fanny" McGary
b - ca 1793 - KY
married - Platt Bayless on 1 Apr 1812 - Butler Co. OH
d - unknown (after 1852 ?)
Lived in Tippecanoe Co. IN in 1850.
Known children: Sarah Anne Bayless m Ezra Bush; Cyrus Bayless m Caroline Corn; John M. Bayless m #1 Isabel Harriett Page; Alfred Ayers Bayless m Harriet Park; Martha Jane Bayless m #1 Jacob Cosner; Platt Bayless. Will of John McGary gives to Fanny Balis $300 for which he has receipt for same + money from sale of land.

5. Elizabeth "Betsey" McGary

b - unknown married - John Martin on 30 Jan 1812 in Butler Co. OH
d - unknown
Not mentioned in the will of her father, John McGary.

6. Martha "Patsey" McGary
   b - 19 Jul 1795 - KY married - Edward Popejoy on 13 Jan 1814 in Butler Co. OH
   d - 19 Nov 1875 - Fayette Co. OH
   buried - Higbee Cemetery - Fayette Co. OH
   The will of John McGary gives to "my daughter, Patsey Popejoy" $500 for which he holds her receipt.
   Note: Martha and Edward are my line.

7. Isaac McGary
   b - 19 Jan 1800 - Butler Co. OH married - #1 Eleanor Markland (dau of Matthew Markland of Butler Co. OH) no marriage date found but per deeds in Butler Co., by 1822.
   married - #2 Elinor Powell on 14 Jan 1830 in Austin Co. TX - divorced married - #3 Elizabeth B. Word (a widow) on 17 Feb1842 in Montgomery Co. TX d - 21 Jun 1866 - Bolivar Point (Port Bolivar) Galveston Co. TX buried - Galveston, Galveston Co. TX (Magnolia Cemetery ??? stone destroyed in 1900 hurricane).
   Isaac fought at the Battle of San Jacinto in 1836, was sheriff of Montgomery Co. TX in 1843, first county clerk of Walker Co. TX in 1846. Much info from San Jacinto Museum and Handbook of Texas Online. Also, lots of land records for him in Texas at the Texas State Library site.
   Isaac McGary is not listed in the will of his father, John McGary. Isaac had been in Texas for over 20 years when John wrote his will and I wonder since everyone had left Butler Co. if Isaac had lost contact.........
   Isaac had among his children, one Austin McGary, a rather famous man in his own right...see www.restorationmovement.com/mcgary, austin....for Austin's bio and picture.

I have lots more on various families, including John and Martha Jane Popejoy Hensley. Have found burial locations for several of the Hensleys in Iowa.
More later,
Mary R. M. Nunneley

Subject: RE: United Brethren Act

Date: Tue, 30 Jan 2007 13:26:26 -0500

From: "Merritt Blakeslee" <mblakeslee@dhlaw.com>

To: "Mary R. M. Nunneley" <nunne002@sbcglobal.net>

Mary,

The deed is

Indenture (deed of sale) dated December 14, 1797, from John Cleves Symmes to John McGary of 200 acres of land in the fourth section of the second township of the third or Military range in the Miami Purchase, Hamilton County, Ohio for $500. Recorder, Butler County, Hamilton, Ohio, Volume B, pp. 91-92 (recorded March 20, 1798; John C. Symmes to John McGary) (McGary Deed 3).

I will send you a copy.

My recollection is that I ordered all the relevant deeds listed in:

Alma Aicholtz Smith, Ohio Lands: Hamilton County Deed Book A, 1787-1797, Territory Northwest of the River Ohio, Cincinnati, Ohio: 1992.

Best regards,
Merritt

Merritt,
Made copies of the Act and will see if it contains anything that might give light to why John McGary moved from, probably Kentucky, to Ohio.
Can you tell me more about the deed from Symmes to McGary and where I can find this deed?

Hi Frank,
I have done no further research on Isaac McGary of Butler Co. Ohio. Only know that he apparently married:

1 - Eleanor Markland (dau of Matthew). Their location of marriage if unknown, but certainly in Ohio. The settlement of the estate of Matthew Markland in Butler Co. OH proves that his daughter, Eleanor, was the husband of Isaac McGary. In 1815, Ezekiel Ball is appointed guardian of Eleanor Markland aged 12 years, dau of Matthew Markland, decd. In 1822, Isaac McGary and wife Eleanor (along with one of her brothers) sell land by deed. I have no idea what happened to Eleanor, nor if there were children of this marriage.

2 - Eleanor Powell married Isaac McGary on 14 Jan 1830 in Austin Co. TX As you mentioned, their marriage may have been dissolved by an act of the Texas Congress.........I have never seen this information.

3 - Elizabeth Brazelton Visere - no marriage yet located, but Isaac does have a wife Elizabeth on the 1850 census of Walker Co. TX I wonder about the true name of # 3. I suspect she may have had a first marriage to a Mr. Word.

There is a great deal of information concerning Isaac and his son, Austin on the internet at both the "Handbook of Texas Online" and the San Jacinto Museum page. Some of it, as usual, has errors.
I do not recall mentioning an Ellick and Elizabeth Powell and their children and did not keep a copy of my e-mail to you. I do know there was an early Elizabeth Powell in Texas and had land grants in some of the same counties as Isaac. There was also an Elizabeth Powell who patented land in Cape Girardeau Co. MO in 1823.
Sorry I am unable to help your search for your Powell family. I cannot even find out much more about my McGary family............

Mary,

This is great. Does your discovery suggest any additional places to look for documentary information about John? Have you looked at property records, for example, for Fulton County?

I still remain intrigued by the John McGary in Cincinnati in 1830 and 1840.

Best regards,
Merritt

Subject: Re: John McGary

Made an exciting find this weekend and something I have looked for,,,,,even had a researcher try to locate several years ago........the location of burial of John McGary. The Fulton Co. IN list of cemetery burials is now online and I found the following:

Reichter Cemetery / Fulton Co. IN
Row 7 - North
John McGary
died / 13 Aug 1850
90 years - 2 months - 26 days

I rather think the age should be 98 years, as he was listed as age 98 on the 1850 census. His calculated date of birth would be 18 May 1752 (if, indeed, he was 98 at death). His wife, Francis "Fanny" McGary died 20 Nov 1837 and is buried in Higbee

Cemetery in Fayette Co. OH. Years ago, her stone is supposed to have read 81 years (month and day not given), but is now illegible except for the date. Thus she would have been born ca 1756, per her stone.
Each time I think.....now I will copy the McGary material for Merritt.......I start finding additional information. Bear with me for a little longer and hope my delay does not cause problems with your book, but all of this information really does add to the entire story of Isaac McGary and family.
I was amazed that the county clerk of Fort Bend Co. TX has made available so much material pertaining to the County. Many counties are beginning to add records online, but many, many seem to think these records are very private........not so, and I remember years ago trying to obtain the marriage record for Edward Popejoy and Martha "Patsey" McGary. I received a two page hand-written letter from the clerk, bemoaning her difficulties with sick employees and her lack of time to fulfill my request. Very soon after her letter arrived, the State of Ohio enacted a law concerning the time allowed to county clerks to reply for such a request.........then, a hefty fine was assessed per each day the request was ignored. I, again, requested the marriage record. My word, it seemed to arrive in the next day's mail.
Will continue to look around a bit more for info on the McGarys.

INTRODUCTION

Isaac McGary's Interest for Us

- Born at the beginning of the new century.
- He lived through a remarkable period of history: the colonization and independence of Texas.
- He had connections to the fathers of Texas: Stephen F. Austin, William Barret Travis, and Sam Houston.
- He was a soldier, and served in some of the most important battles in the history of Texas: the Siege of BÃ©xar, the Battle of San Jacinto, CÃ³rdova Raid, VÃ¡squez Invasion, Sommervell Campaign, and Mexican War, missing only the Battle of the Alamo.
- His place in the history of Texas.
- His interest as an exemplar of his time.
- His land grants: league, labor, donation grant, bounty grant. He lived one of the great and short-lived American experiences â€" it came and went in his lifetime â€" the granting of land to colonists and soldiers to build a colony and later a republic.
- His character: a capable man, looked up to by his peers: elected first lieutenant in the Somervell Campaign, elected Sheriff, County Assessor, and County Clerk.
- His character as a practical joker.
- Occupations: soldier, farmer, merchant, trader of government paper, would-be land speculator, county sheriff, county assessor, county clerk, chief justice of county commission, candidate for the legislature.

  - Pre-history of Isaac McGary's Family

McGary is variation of McGarry, which is a variant of the Irish name McAree. That name is an anglicized version of the Gaelic name Mac Fhearadhaigh, from the nickname Fhearadhac, meaning â€œmanly, brave.â€□ Other variations are McHarry, Mahorry, McKerry, McKeary, Mcgarry, Megarry, McFaree, McGarry, McVarry, and McVerry.[1]

According to family tradition, the McGary family originally came from County Mayo, in Ireland.[2]

I. OHIO BEGINNINGS â€" bETWEEN THE MIAMIS

A. John McGary in Hamilton and Butler Counties, Ohio, ca. 1797 to ca. 1822

The first record that we have found of the John McGary whom we believe to be Isaac McGary's father memorializes the former's purchase in 1797 of a 200-acre tract of land in the Symmes Purchase, Hamilton County, Territory Northwest of the River Ohio.

In 1787, John Cleves Symmes, a land speculator, began selling land in what is today southern Ohio. Symmes, a congressman from New Jersey, visited the region between the Great and Little Miami Rivers in 1787 with an eye to developing it. He returned east, organized a company, and petitioned Congress to sell him land on the same terms as to the Ohio Company, which had carried out a similar venture in eastern Ohio. Congress acquiesced, and on November 25, 1787 at Trenton, Symmes published a pamphlet offering land for sale. Shortly thereafter, he began to issue certificates, and the first settlements were established along the right bank of the Ohio River in late 1788 and early 1789.[3]

The Symmes Purchase, also called the Miami Purchase, is an area bounded to the south by the Ohio River, to the east by the Little Miami River, and to the west by the Great Miami River, in the Territory of the United States North-west of the River Ohio. In a pamphlet written to entice settlers to the Purchase, Symmes described the land as a latter-day Eden:

> There are no mountains in the tract, and excepting a few hills, the country is generally level, and free from stone on the surface of the earth, but there are plenty of stone quarries for building. It is said to be well watered with springs and rivulets, and several fine mill streams falling from the dividing ridge, into the two Miamis, which lie about thirty miles apart, and are both supposed to be navigable . . . so that the interior farms will have navigation in the boating seasons, within fifteen or eighteen miles at farthest. Salt in any quantity may be had by water within a moderate distance, at the salt works on the banks of the Licking river, which empties itself from the Kentucke side into the Ohio, between the two Miami rivers. Provisions for the first emigrants may be had very cheap and good, by water, from the Pittsburgh, Redstone and Wheeling settlements, or from the district of Kentucke. . . The distance from Fort Pitt is about five hundred miles down a gentle river, navigable for boats of one hundred tons to the Mississippi and down the Mississippi to the sea.[5]

Note: The situation between the Miamis is similar to the situation between the Brazos and the San Bernard in Ft Bend Co.

Reality was less idyllic. Between 1790 and 1795, bloody Indian war raged in southwestern Ohio, earning it the name of the â€œMiami Slaughter House.â€□[6] In 1794, an advertisement appeared in Cincinnati's newspaper, The Centinel of the North-western Territory, offering bounties for Indian scalps.[7] Not until 1795 with the Treaty of Greene Ville did the Indian Wars in southwestern Ohio come to an end.[8]

On October 30, 1794, Symmes conveyed the entire Third Range of townships in trust to Jonathan Dayton, who had acquired military bounty warrants from soldiers. These soldiers desired to settle in the western country but could not afford a cash payment. For this reason, the third range, situated in what is today Butler and Warren Counties, is often called the Military Range. Dayton subsequently conveyed townships 2 and 3 of the Military Range, fronting on the Great Miami River, to Israel Ludlow who laid out the town of Hamilton there.[9]

Two years after the Treaty of Greene Ville, on December 14, 1797, John McGary (â€œMcGaryâ€□)[11] purchased 200 acres of land in the northeast corner of the fourth section of the second township of the Military range, Hamilton County, Ohio. John McGary purchased his tract directly from John Cleves Symmes, to whom he paid $500.[12]

Governor St. Clair had created Hamilton County in 1790 from the land lying between the two Miami Rivers.[13] See Figure 3. On February 11, 1792, the county was enlarged to encompass all land from the Great Miami River east to the Scioto River and north to Lake Huron.[14] By the time John McGary purchased his 200-acre tract, Hamilton Countyâ€™s northern boundary had been pushed southward by the formation of Wayne County above the Greene Ville Treaty Line.[15]

In 1797, Hamilton County encompassed the area that would, upon Ohioâ€™s admission to the Union on May 1, 1803,[17] become parts of more than a dozen counties in two states, including, in that part of southwestern Ohio with which we are concerned, Montgomery, Greene, Butler, Warren, Clermont, and present-day Hamilton Counties.[18] Butler and Hamilton Counties as delimited in 1803 possessed approximately their present boundaries.[19]

The deed by which John Cleves Symmes conveyed the 200-acre tract to McGary identifies Symmes as a resident of Hamilton County. It states with even greater precision that John McGary is â€œof the military range in the Miami Purchase & said county of Hamilton,â€□ a clear statement that in December 1797 he was already a resident of the locality where his newly purchased land lay. The fact that he already resided in the Military Range suggests that he may have been a veteran who made an earlier land purchase with a bounty warrant. Research project: Look for Revolutionary War military records. Also use Alma Aicholtz Smith, The Virginia Military Surveys of Clermont and Hamilton Counties, Ohio, 1787-1849 (1985).

The deed of sale gives no indication that John McGary was married at the time he made the purchase.

John paid a premium price for the tract that he purchased from Symmes. Symmes offered land to the earliest purchasers in the Symmes Purchase at two thirds of a dollar per acre.[21] Ten years later, with the Indian Wars safely over, John McGary paid $2.50 per acre for his 200-acre purchase.

MOVE However, when John sold the same tract of land 25 years later, he received $6000 â€" or $30 per acre â€" for it.

It is curious, since Johnâ€™s land was in the second township of the Military Range, that he purchased it not from Ludlow but directly from Symmes.[22]

Johnâ€™s land lies in the northernmost part of Liberty Township, about half a mile east of the Great Miami River, and a little more than four miles south of present-day Middletown as the crow flies. Its northern boundary lies on the border between Liberty and Lemon Townships.[23] Gregory Creek, flowing north through Butler County, traverses two tracts of land later owned by Isaac McGary and by Isaac and his wife Eleanor respectively in section 33, township 2 of the Military Range, then crosses the corner of Johnâ€™s 200-acre tract in section 4, township 2 of the Military Range before flowing into the Great Miami River below Middletown.[24]

At present, we know nothing of where John McGary was born. It is virtually certain that he came from outside the region, as the Symmes Purchase, where his land was located, had been opened to settlement only ten years earlier. As there were a number of McGarys in Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio in this period,[26] it is not unlikely that he came from this region.

A number of indicators permit us to approximate the date of John McGaryâ€™s birth. In 1807, he is listed as being over 21.[27] Therefore, he must have been born before 1786. Fannie, whom we believe to have been Isaacâ€™s older sister, was married in 1812. Assuming that Fannie was, indeed, Johnâ€™s daughter, that John did not father a child before he was 17 and that Fannie did not marry before she was 17, John must have been born before 1778. In 1820, he is listed as being over 45.[28] Therefore, he must have been born before 1775. This is not inconsistent with the federal census of 1830, which lists a male between 60 and 70 years of age in the household of John McGary in Cincinnati.[29] If he was 70 in 1830, he could have served in the Revolutionary War, as he would have been 21 when the land war in the American Revolution came to an end with the surrender of Cornwallis on Oct. 19, 1781. Hence, it is possible that he was a veteran of the Revolutionary War, although the only indication we have found that this might be the case is his purchase of land in the Military Range of the Miami Purchase.

Sometime after 1805, John McGary purchased â€œthe mill seat [i.e., site] adjacent to town of Middletonâ€□ known as Vailâ€™s Mills, in Lemon Township.[30] On January 23, 1807, perhaps to finance the purchase of the mill, perhaps for other purposes, John McGary (â€œMcGara,â€□ â€œMcGeara,â€□ â€œMcGareyâ€□), â€œof the county of Butler,â€□ mortgaged to William Squier for the sum of $1500 a one-half interest in what has WORD MISSING described as a grist mill and a saw mill. The mill site was situated on the Great Miami River, Butler County, adjoining Middletown, Lemon Township,[31] about four miles north of Johnâ€™s 200-acre tract in Liberty Township. According to the mortgage, Johnâ€™s debt to Squier was to be repaid by 1811.

John McGary appears on the 1806 (â€œMagaryâ€□)[33] and 1810 (â€œMcGareyâ€□)[34] Butler County tax lists, as well as on a statewide index of taxpayers prepared in 1812 (â€œMcGaryâ€□).[35] The 1806 tax list is the first reference to John since 1797. In the latter, which identifies him as a resident of Butler County, he is the only McGary listed in Ohio, although this list does not cover all counties.

The 1807 census of Butler County, which lists him as a white male over the age of 21 (â€œJohn McGeryâ€□), indicates that he is now living in Lemon Township.[36] It seems likely that he left his farm in Liberty Township to work his mills near Middletown. By 1820, however, he is again living in Liberty Township where it would appear that he and his wife Frances are farming the 200-acre tract that John purchased from Symmes twenty-three years earlier. By now, all their children have left home. While the 1820 federal census does not list a John McGary in Butler County,[37] the 1820 Census of Liberty Township, Butler County, Ohio, shows him (â€œJohn Megaryâ€□) as the head of a household as comprised of 1 white male 45 years & upwards, 1 white female 45 years & upwards, with 1 person engaged in agriculture.[38]

On July 20, 1822, John McGary (â€œMcGaryâ€□) and his wife Frances (â€œFrances,â€□ â€œFrancisâ€□) sold to William Lemond for $6000 the tract of land in Liberty Township that John had purchased in 1797 for $500.[39] Frances McGary signs the deed, in which she relinquishes her right of dower, with an â€œX,â€□ indicating that she is unable to sign her name. This deed states clearly that John and Frances are now from Hamilton County, the first indication that their place of residence is no longer Butler County.

B. John McGary in Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio
ca. 1822 to ca. 1840

Until 1822, it is easy to follow the documentary record of Isaac's father. After this point, the record is less clear, although we know of only one John McGary in southwestern Ohio in the two decades after 1820. This John McGary (â€œMcGearyâ€□) appears in the 1830 federal census as a resident of Cincinnati's Ward 4.[40] It appears that this is Isaac McGaryâ€™s father John, who, with Frances, removed to Cincinnati, Hamilton County, from Liberty Township, Butler County, sometime after 1820. This supposition is strengthened by the fact that there is no listing of any McGary in the census records compiled for tax purposes for Cincinnati that have survived â€" those for 1798, 1799, and 1817.[41]

The 1830 census indicates that John McGary was the head of a household of fifteen persons. No indication of family relationship is given. The household comprised seven males and eight females, including one male and two females under age five (Male Child No. 1, Female Children Nos. 1-2), one male between 5 and 10 (Male Child No. 2), one male and three females between 10 and 20 (Male Adolescent No. 1, Female Adolescents Nos. 1-3), two males and one female between 20 and 30 (Male Adults Nos. 1-2, Female Adult No. 1), one male between 30 and 40 (Male No. 3), one female between 40 and 50 (Female Adult No. 2), one male between 60 and 70 (Male No. 4), and one female between 70 and 80 (Female Adult No. 3). Assuming that all members of the household belonged to the same family, this suggests that three or even four generations were living under John and Francesâ€™ roof.

The 1840 federal census lists a John McGary (â€œMcGaryâ€□), apparently the same person as in the 1830 census, living in Cincinnati's Ward 5.[42]

This does not work. This cannot be the same John McGary. By 1840, John McGaryâ€™s household had shrunk to seven persons, two males and five females. These included two females under 5, one male and one female between 5 and 10, one female between 20 and 30, one female between 30 and 40, and one male between 40 and 50. The census notes that one person was employed in â€œManufactures and Trades.â€□

In 1840, James McGary was the head of a household in Cincinnatiâ€™s Ward 6 comprised of two males and two females, apparently himself, his wife, and two children. These included one male under 5, one female between 5 and 10, and one male and one female between 30 and 40. The census seems to indicate that one person was employed in â€œManufactures and Trades.â€□

Of the fifteen McGarys living in Cincinnati in 1830, only five remained in 1840. In addition, the two families had been enlarged by one marriage and six births during this period. John (2) and his wife must be Male No. 6 and Female No. 6, while James could be Male No. 5. His wife corresponds to no member of the 1830 household, indicating that their marriage occurred after 1830. It is not clear who Female No. 5 (a female between 10 and 20) is. The three oldest members of the 1830 household have also disappeared and may well have been deceased by 1840: the female who was between 40 and 50 (Female No. 7), the male who was between 60 and 70 (Male No. 7), and the female who was between 70 and 80 (Female No. 8) in 1830. It is a reasonable assumption that Male No. 7 was his father, John (1) McGary; and that either Female No. 7 or No. 8 was Isaacâ€™s mother, Frances McGary. It is even possible that Female No. 8 is Isaacâ€™s grandmother. It is also possible that James and his wife were also Isaacâ€™s brother and sister-in-law.

The four youngest children from 1830 (Males Nos. 1-2, Females Nos. 1-2) have disappeared, as have three of the next youngest four: one male and two females who were between 10 and 20 in 1830 (Male No. 3, Females Nos. 3-4).

C. Isaac McGary in Butler and Hamilton Counties, Ohio, 1800 to Ca. 1822

Isaacâ€™s oldest daughter, Frances Rachel McGary, who went by â€œFannieâ€□ and whom we shall call Fannie McGary, has left behind a long memoir that contains much of what we know of Isaac beyond the bare facts provided by various governmental records.[43] Fannie wrote in later life that she knew very little of her father's ancestry, as she was only seventeen when he died in 1866. He was, she recalled, â€œa man of few wordsâ€□[44] who took â€œlittle interest in family histories.â€□[45] Indeed, she saw little of her father after 1861, because she was separated from him for four years during the Civil War, from September 1861, when she was twelve, until September 1865, when she was 16, and again for the three months preceding his death in June 1866.[46] In fact, she confesses to having forgotten what little he did tell her during her childhood.[47]

1. Place of Birth

Isaac McGary was born in southwestern Ohio on January 17, 1800,[48] just after the turn of the century and three years before Ohio was admitted to the Union. Exactly where he was born is more perplexing. The McGary Family Bible gives his birthplace as Liberty Township,[49] Butler County, a fact that is consistent with the records that show WHAT?. Fannie, however, is insistent that he was born in Cincinnati (or â€œCincinnati Townshipâ€□)[50]; indeed, it may be for this reason that she made a visit to Cincinnati a part of her honeymoon.[51]

While there is a gap in the documentary record covering the years on either side of Isaacâ€™s birth, the 1797 Liberty Township deed and 1806 Butler County tax list both locate John McGary in the Military Range rather than in Cincinnati. Hence, the greater likelihood is that Isaac was born in Liberty Township and that Fannieâ€™s belief that he was born in Cincinnati was an error based on the fact that his parents lived there in later life.

2. Parents

No contemporary document identifies John and Frances McGary as Isaacâ€™s parents.[52] There are, however, persuasive reasons for believing this to be the case:

- First, John and Isaac share the same surname.
- Second, Isaac was born in Liberty Township, Butler County, where, in 1800, John owned a tract of land.
- Third, John's wife was named Frances, while Isaac had a sister named Fannie, a diminutive of Frances.
- Isaac and Elizabeth named their first daughter Frances Rachel. â€œRachelâ€□ was the name of the mother of Elizabeth Brazelton Viser, the childâ€™s maternal grandmother.[53] While Fannie McGary believed that she was named for her aunt Frances, Isaacâ€™s sister,[54] it is equally possible that â€œFrancesâ€□ invoked that memory of her paternal grandmother instead of, or in addition to, that of her aunt.
- Fourth, in 1822 Isaac owned land in Liberty Township, Butler County, on the same drainage as, and less than a mile from, Johnâ€™s land.
- Fifth, John and Isaac sold their land in Liberty Township, Butler County within a few weeks of one another in 1822.

3. Isaacâ€™s Sisters

Isaac, who was his parentsâ€™ only son, had three sisters,[55] including a sister named Fannie, for whom Isaacâ€™s daughter Fannie believed she was named and who was still living in Ohio when she was born in 1849.[56] Isaacâ€™s daughter remembered that one of the sisters was named â€œPopijoy,â€□ â€œwhich I thought funny when I was a child,â€□ and that another was named â€œBayles.â€□[57]

The â€œBaylesâ€□ sister was, in fact, Fannie, who was married to Platt Bayles on April 1, 1812 by the Rev. Stephen Gard.[58] The â€œPopijoyâ€□ sister was Patsey McGarey, who married Edward Popejoy on January 13, 1814. The presiding minister was Rev. John Hardy.[59] There are two candidates for Isaacâ€™s third sister: Jane McGarey, who married Frederick Froxell on October 15, 1807 and Betsey McGarey, who married John Martin on January 30, 1812. Rev. Stephen Gard, the same minister who married Fannie, married both Jane and Betsey. All four marriages took place in Butler County.[60]

Research Project: Try to track down these marriage records. See file folder â€œMarriages of Isaacâ€™s Sisters.â€□

On the evidence of the dates of his sistersâ€™ marriages, Isaac must have been the youngest of John and Francesâ€™ four children. He was only seven when the first of these marriages took place and only fourteen when the last took place.

The 1820 federal census does not list Isaac McGary,[61] although it is possible that he was not eligible to be listed, as he was only twenty at the time. (Cite to census that lists males over age of 21.)

4. Isaacâ€™s Marriage to Eleanor Markland

Isaac, who married three times during the course of his life, made his first marriage to Eleanor Markland. This marriage took place sometime before August 21, 1822, presumably in Butler or Hamilton County, Ohio. This was the date on which Eleanor, identified as Isaacâ€™s wife, sold a tract of land on Gregory Creek.[62]

Eleanor Markland was born on July 24, 1803.[63] She was the youngest child and only daughter of Matthew and Delila Markland. Her brother Joshua was born on May 1, 1795[64] while her brother Matthew was born in 1800.[65]

In 1810, Eleanorâ€™s father made a down payment against the substantial purchase price of $800 on a 200-acre tract lying on Gregory Creek,[66] a little more than a mile south of John McGaryâ€™s tract. There is no record of the Marklands in Butler County before 1810. Thus, it is not clear where Eleanor spent the early years of her life and whether, in 1810, the Marklands were newly arrived in Butler County.

The Marklands appear to have settled on their new land, which would have been forested. Matthew and his sons cleared land for farming and grazing land, for the inventory of his estate lists horses, a log chain, a crosscut saw, and axes; cows and a bull, sheep, geese; and plows, a harrow, various hand implements â€" hoes, a scythe, a sickle, a shovel, a mattock, and a hive of bees.[67] In addition, Matthew seems to have been a carpenter or a furniture-maker, either for his household or for others; for his inventory lists numerous woodworking tools â€" a square, an auger, a hand vice, two hammers, a hand saw, a drawknife, a file, together with a stock of cherry boards and white ash plank.[68] And he had other skills, for the inventory shows a note for $20 to cover Brice Virginâ€™s order for â€œone Barrel of whiskey.â€□[69]

Eleanorâ€™s family seems to have lived comfortably. Among there possessions were dresser furniture, a looking glass, smoothing irons, a manâ€™s and a womanâ€™s saddle, two linen wheels and a large spinning wheel (but no loom), two trunks, a pair of dog irons, a watch valued at $14, a large Bible, and â€" curious in a household where neither parent could read and write â€"and three small books.[70]

Two years later, Matthew purchased two lots in Princetown, a tiny hamlet that lay slightly more than a mile south and west of his farm. He did not move his family there, however, for the lots were still unimproved at the time of his death.[71]

Eleanorâ€™s father died in the spring or summer of 1814, when she was twelve.[72] He left a substantial estate, more than $1200, not counting unsold real estate â€” and with it debts of equal magnitude.[73] He made provision for Eleanorâ€™s mother, â€œmy true and loving wife,â€□ leaving her â€œall my household property, one horse, two cows, and all my sheep.â€□[74] He ordained that â€œwhen my three children should all come of age, or as much sooner as the court may think proper that my land should be equally divided between the three before mentioned children to be equally divided quantity and quality.â€□[75] He gave no further instructions for the welfare of Joshua, who was by then almost nineteen, but he instructed that his Executors â€œshould find out and bind my son Matthew to some good trade.â€□ As to his youngest child, Matthew declared â€œit is my will that when my daughter Elender should arrive to a reasonable age that she should be put to school both to read write and needlework.â€□ And signed his will with an â€œX.â€□ His instructions appear to have been carried out, for when, in 1822, Eleanor signs away her right of dower, she does so with a signature, not with a mark.[76]

The only real estate listed in the inventory of Matthewâ€™s estate is the two lots in Princetown. Presumably, his 200-acre tract in Township 32 was not listed because, by virtue of Delilaâ€™s right to live there for the remainder of her life (of her widowhood? i.e., or until she remarried), this property could not be disposed of and, hence, had no place in the inventory of disposable or transferable assets. This is a strong indication that the family made their home on this tract. A second strong indication is the fact that Matthewâ€™s executors apply for permission to sell this tract at the first session of the Court of Common Pleas following Delilaâ€™s death (see below).

The administrative documents related to Matthewâ€™s estate reveal two links to the McGarys. While the appraisers of Delilaâ€™s estate were neighors whose land adjoined the Markland land, one of those who appraised Matthewâ€™s estate[77] â€” Abraham Miley â€” was a neighbor not of the Marklands but of John McGary. And on December 31, 1814, when Samuel Enyart and John Ayers, Matthew Marklandâ€™s executors, convey one of the Princetown lots to Brice Virgin,[78] one of the witnesses to the transaction is Platt Bayles (â€œBoylesâ€□), Isaac McGaryâ€™s brother-in-law.

For reasons that are not immediately apparent, given that Delila was still alive, Matthew and Eleanor, each identified as an â€œorphan minor,â€□ were placed under a court-appointed guardianship a year after their fatherâ€™s death.[79] Did they become indentured servants. Was this a sort of guardian ad litem to watch over their property interests?

In the winter of 1820, Delila Markland, declaring â€œI am sick and premeditating on the certainty of death,â€□ made her last will and testament.[80] In it she left one third of a certain â€œaccountâ€□ of money to her oldest son, Joshua, and the remainder of the â€œaccountâ€□ to Matthew. To Eleanor she left â€œall the ballance of my property after my debts and funeral expenses is paid.â€□ She too signed with an â€œX,â€□ and died before spring arrived.

Her estate was, however, considerably more modest than her husbandâ€™s. Her goods and chattel were worth less than $100; while the remainder, a similar amount, was in the form of debts owed her, the bulk consisting of Joshuaâ€™s â€œaccount.â€□[81] John V.S. Davis, her former neighbor and, at the time of her death her tenant,[82] served as her executor, while two other neighbors, David Griffis and Daniel Woodruff, served as appraisers for her estate.[83]

Eleanor and her brothers received little or nothing from her meager estate. Immediately upon her death, the executors of Matthewâ€™s estate made application to the Court of Common Pleas to sell â€œcertain real estate of the deceased [i.e., Matthew] for the payment of debts.â€□[84] Presumably, because of Delilaâ€™s right of dower they could not have sold Matthewâ€™s farm, where she was living, before her death. But the court, which had probated Delilaâ€™s will that same day, took note that â€œthe testator bequeathed to his widow all his hous[e]hold goods and other personal property during the widowhoodâ€□ and that â€œthe widow of said Testator hath since died.â€□ Accordingly, the court ordered that the property of Delilaâ€™s estate â€œbe applied to the payment of the debts of the said Testator before any part of the real estate of said Testator be applied to the payment of the same debts.â€□

Within the year, Matthew Marklandâ€™s executors were again before the court; and on this occasion they received permission to attempt to sell 100 acres of â€œwood landâ€□ lying on the western half of Matthewâ€™s 200-acre tract, for which they believed they could obtain $6.00 per acre.[85] Ultimately, however, the executors were able to sell only fifty-five acres, and that for a mere $4.00 per acre. This would appear to be the uncleared western portion of Matthewâ€™s land. Even at that, $4.00 per acre is a paltry sum. Two years later, John McGary would receive $30.00 per acre for his 200-acre tract, which he had, it should be said, spent many more years improving.

The sale of this fifty-five-acre tract, together with $111 in cash received from Delilaâ€™s estate, sufficed, although just barely, to pay off the nearly $1300 in debts owed by Matthewâ€™s estate.[86] A significant part of this amount, nearly $400, was â€œthe costs of Administration funeral expenses sundry debts etc. paid by Executors.â€□[87] As this amount is not further itemized, and as the final account also includes a second amount for â€œdebts etc. paid by the Executors etc.,â€□ it is hard to avoid the suspicion that the â€œcosts of Administrationâ€□ were padded.

With Matthewâ€™s massive debts finally paid, Eleanor and her brothers presumably received whatever meager residue remained from Deliaâ€™s estate, together with the unsold real estate still belonging to Matthewâ€™s estate â€" one lot in Princetown and the remaining 145 acres of the original 200-acre tract.

On August 21, 1822, Eleanor (â€œEllinder,â€□ â€œEleanorâ€□) McGary (â€œMcGaryâ€□), â€œof the county of Hamilton,â€□ and her brother Matthew, of Butler County, sold 43 acres of land in the thirty-third section of the third township of the Military Range to their older bother, Joshua Markland, also of Hamilton County.[88] The deed of sale states clearly that Isaac and Eleanor are married and that they are residents not of Butler but â€" like John McGary at this same date â€" of Hamilton County. In fact, the deed makes clear that Matthew and Eleanor are the owners of the property and that Isaac signs the deed of sale merely in his capacity as Eleanorâ€™s husband.

On September 25, 1822, Isaac sold a second 43-acre tract of land in the thirty-third section of the third township of the Military Range â€œbetween the Miamiâ€™s,â€□ Butler County, Ohio, to the owner of the adjoining parcel, Micajah Slade, for $300. Isaac and Eleanor are again identified as husband and wife and as residents of Hamilton County. In the deed of sale, Eleanor relinquishes her â€œright of dowerâ€□ to this property.[89] The right of dower was the right of the wife to live on land owned by her husband after his death and until hers, notwithstanding that the land belonged not to her but to his heirs.[90] The Justice of the Peace before whom the deed was executed â€œexaminedâ€□ Eleanor â€œseparate and apart from her said husband,â€□ where he â€œmade known and explained to herâ€□ the contents of the deed and the ramifications of the sale for her legally protected right of dower. Eleanor affirmed that she relinquished her right of dower â€œvoluntarily and of her own free will and accord, without any fear or coercion of her husband.â€□[91]

These two tracts of land lay along Gregory Creek, approximately midway between the tract downstream belonging to Isaacâ€™s father and the tract upstream that had belonged to Eleanorâ€™s father. See Figure 5. Three things are puzzling about these paired sales. The first is their shape. While they are identical in size and dimensions, one is the inverted mirror image of the other. See Figure 7. Second, these twin tracts of land â€" lying close to one another and identical in acreage and in shape â€" would logically have the same origin. But one tract appears to be land that Isaac brought to the marriage â€" or at least that he owned separately â€" while the other appears to be land owned jointly by Eleanor and her brother Matthew and in which Isaac had no direct ownership interest. Third, while a tract of land belonging to Eleanor and her brother would logically have come to them by inheritance, that does not seem to have been the case; for Matthewâ€™s will makes no mention of such a tract of land.

Did they, perhaps, receive it in exchange for a portion of the remaining 145 acres of their fatherâ€™s farm that must have come to them? The acreage of the two tracts and the land in between amounts to just over 129 acres. (A rectangle covering the two tracts and the land in between (i.e., squaring the southeast and northwest corners) amounts to about 149 acres.) Did Matthew Marklandâ€™s three children trade their fatherâ€™s 145-acre farm for three tracts of land amounting to about the same acreage? Did the middle tract go to Joshua and the north and south tracts jointly to Matthew and Eleanor? And did Isaac purchase the northern tract from Matthew and Eleanor? We can only speculate.

It can hardly be a coincidence that John and Frances sold their land in Butler County at virtually the same time that Isaac and Eleanor sold theirs. Parents and son cut their ties with Butler County simultaneously. Isaac, who was living in Hamilton County, appears to have been readying himself to leave both his wife and the state of his birth for a new life on the western frontier. On the other hand, John and Frances (John was over 47 years of age at the time) appear to have been preparing to move to Cincinnati rather than continuing to farm in rural Ohio after the departure of their only son.

It seems clear that Isaac divorced Eleanor Markland before leaving Ohio. Aunt Frances McKnight reported being told (by Lillian Otey McGary?) that Isaac was divorced in Ohio before coming to Texas,[92] and divorce was common in early Ohio.[93] Research Project: Look for divorce record. See file folder â€œIsaacâ€™s Marriage to Eleanor Markland.â€□ Moreover, when Isaac finally arrived in Texas in March 1825,[94] eighteen months after selling his and his wifeâ€™s land in Butler County, he was alone at a time and place where it would have been to his advantage to be married or accompanied by dependents. Not only does he explicitly state, when he finally gets around to registering in 1829, that he is single and unaccompanied by other family or dependents,[95] but â€" more significantly â€" he initially claimed only a quarter-league of land, the portion of a single man, rather than the full league reserved to married men and those with dependents.

Nor, as far as we know, did Isaac ever again have any contact with Eleanor. (The former wife named â€œEllen,â€□ whose son visited Isaac in Madison, is surely his second wife, Eleanor Powell, rather than Eleanor Markland. [96]) Isaac, who took â€œlittle interest in family histories,â€□[97] seemed to have eschewed any contact with his Ohio past after his departure, until, at the moment of gaining great wealth, he took his son Marion to visit Isaacâ€™s sisters in 1856, during Isaac and Marionâ€™s trip to Washington, D.C.[98]

III. Rejects

Milam contrasts this situation with that which would obtain if the settlers were dispossessed of their land by fraudulent land claims and replaced by absentee owners and their tenants.

Texas will long remain the comparative wilderness it now isâ€" millions of acres of land will be locked up in the hands of single individuals to be trod & occupied only by wild beasts & savages . . . [or] inhabitated by tenants of foreign speculators, who from the number of their dependants would exercise an influence in political concerns, fatal to the prosperity of the country, and incompatible with the principles of Republican simplicity.[99]

Men talked hopefully of the future; children reveled in the novelty of the present; but the women - ah, there was where the situation bore heaviest. As one old lady remarked, Texas was â€œa heaven for men and dogs, but a hell for women and oxen.â€□ They - the women - talked sadly of the old homes and friends left behind, so very far behind it seemed then, of the hardships and bitter privations they were undergoing and the dangers that surrounded them. They had not even the solace of constant employment. The spinning wheel and loom had been left behind. There was, as yet, no use for them - there was nothing to spin. There was no house to keep in order; the meager fare was so simple as to require little time for its preparation. There was no poultry, no dairy, no garden, no books, or papers as nowadays - and, if there had been, many of them could not read - no schools, no churches - nothing to break the dull monotony of their lives, save an occasional wrangle among the children and dogs.

Smithwick, 5.

It is a reasonable assumption that even though Isaac did not patent his league until March 1831, he and Eleanor took up residence there sometime after their marriage more than a year earlier.

[43] Gillespie, Frances Rachel McGary, Fannie McGary, Autobiography and Diary (â€œFannie McGary, Autobiography and Diaryâ€□). This typescript is derived from the following:

Manuscript A: by Frances Rachael McGary Gillespie, beginning â€œNovember 2,1932 - I am beginning today . . . .â€□ This is the text of Chapter I. The manuscript is written in pencil on lined two-hole-punched school note paper approximately 8â€□ x 10 1/2â€□. It consists of 21 leaves. Leaves 11, 13, 15-20 have text on the verso. Leaf 21 has text on the verso but not on the recto. (McGary Document 217).

Manuscript B: by Frances Rachael McGary Gillespie, beginning â€œ1 My father born Jan 17 1800. . .â€□ These are notes that were expanded into MS C. Manuscript B is written in pencil in a smaller script than McGary Document 217. Pages 1a-1d are written on a single folded sheet of stationary headed â€œLos Angeles Branch, Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation of Salt Lake City, 725 So. Spring St., Los Angeles, California, Vandike 4127.â€□ Pages 2-7 consist of 5 sheets of unlined writing paper approximately 5 1/2â€□ x 7â€□ with text on each side. (McGary Document 218).

Manuscript C: by Frances Rachel McGary Gillespie. First sheet is headed â€œBY MRS. FRANCES RACHEL GILLESPIEâ€□ (above â€œFRANCESâ€□ is written â€œFannieâ€□ and above and between RACHEL GILLESPIE is written â€œMcGary.â€□ This is the source of Chapter II, although the early parts of the manuscript have been substantially reorganized. Undated but written after 1911, when the last events occur. (According to the preface to the Autobiography, the MS was written in El Paso in 1937.) Typescript with handwritten annotations in pencil. Typed on 8 1/2â€□ x 11â€□ light-weight typing paper. 33 pages, last two handwritten on typing paper. (McGary Document 219).

Manuscript D: by Frances Rachel McGary Gillespie. This is the text of Chapter III. It is handwritten in a journal 5 3/4â€□ X 7 1/2â€□ bound with marbled covers trimmed in leather. The front cover is detached. The back cover is missing. The pages are lined and are written on front and back in purple and black ink. (McGary Document 231).

However, in 2001 Frank Gillespie McKnight, the present owner of the bible, at my request looked at the original and confirmed that the date is the 17th, not the 7th.

BA-J/ILL
Stephen Fox
W. 10031

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of Stephen Fox, listed in 1840, as a pensioner of Wayne County, Indiana.

The data which follow were found in pension claim, W. 10031, based upon service of Stephen Fox in that war.

Stephen Fox enlisted about November 1780, in Greenwich, Connecticut, served as private in Captain Bulkley's company, Colonel Samuel B. Webb's 3d Connecticut regiment, also under other captains, not named, in Colonel Zebulon Butler's Connecticut regiment and continued until November 1783, when he was discharged at West Point, New York.

He served also in General Harmer's Indian War on the western frontier, specific dates of this service not given, but his entire service on the western frontier was three years.

Stephen Fox was allowed pension on his application executed June 2, 1818, at which time he resided in Hamilton County, Ohio. He was aged then fifty-eight years; the date and place of his birth and the names of his parents were not given.

The soldier died February 25, 1842 in Wayne County, Indiana.

Stephen Fox married July 20, 1790, in Hamilton County, Ohio, Mary Bates; she was born February 17, 1776, the names of her parents not stated.

Mary Fox, the soldier's widow, applied for pension November 13, 1843, at which time she resided in Delaware County, Indiana. Pension was allowed. She died September 11, 1844 in Delaware County, Indiana.

In 1820, the soldier's children living at home were, Usal Bates Fox, aged eighteen years, Samuel Fox, aged fourteen years, Stephen Fox, aged nine years, and Enos H. Fox, aged seven years.

In 1845, the names of the children who survived Mary Fox, soldier's widow, were given as, Jemimah Price, Samuel B. Fox and Mary Baldridge, wife of John Baldridge; they were all residents of Indiana. Said John Baldridge was Administrator of the estate of Mary Fox, in Delaware County, Indiana.

In 1842, Othniel Bates, a resident of Hamilton County, Ohio, stated that he was present at the marriage of his sister, Mary Bates, and Stephen Fox, about five or six miles below the cite of Cincinnati, and that they were garrisoned then at South Bend on the Ohio River; he stated further that they reared a family of six children, but did not give the names of said children.

Very truly yours,

A. D. HILLER,
Executive Assistant to the Administrator.

Corrected by Mrs. Finch - Oct. 12-1936.

Fulton County was the home of James Richter and Eleanor Gordon during the 1830s and 1840s. Eleanor died in 1851 or 1852, along with eight of her children, according to family memory. Two children survived of their union: William Harrison Richter and Marie Richter who relocated to Harrison County, Missouri with their father James Richter in 1855. Eleanor's father was named Robert Gordon (a letter survives with his signature.)Any information and connection would be appreciated and amply rewarded.

Description:
This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census.

Subject: Re: John McGary and wife Francis

To: "Vicki Allen" <vdallen@whoever.com>

Thanks much. It would be so nice if people would NOT list such genealogy items without definite proof. I guess some people just pick out names that sound nice and add them to their lineage. We can guess this must have happened with the name Lady Francis McElroy as the wife of John McGary.
I looked at your site with the wonderful pictures. I have a picture of Alvina Popejoy Conner (dau of Edward and Martha McGary Popejoy) and three of her four children, the twins sons James Rose Conner, Edward Popejoy Conner and their sister Elsie/Ella Conner Mitchem Fitch. I have never been able to locate a picture of the other sister.........
Thanks again for your e-mail letting me know that you only added the name McElroy from the work of other people.

I only added people to my file from the four Popejoy books and the stuff Patsy Andraschko dug up. Once that was available on the net, then several hundred other people offered their data which did fill in a lot of blanks and dead ends.

Mary,

So sorry for not getting back with you with the information. I finished and am getting in corp taxes, took longer than I thought and now working on personal taxes as well.. but got all messed up as we bid on a house and it got accepted so now we are running around for mortgages, insurance and inspectors. Also flooring and colors for the walls. I really don't know when I will grab a minute to look that up. The boxes were half packed as I have been expecting a home to come through sooner or later so not like I can go pull a file quickly. I am keeping your email in my inbox so that I don't forget and I'll try to get to that yet!

Isaac was rather famous in early Texas history. He has asked me to help him with the "Ohio, the early years" part of Isaac's life.

So unfortunately I won't be able to look this up for a little bit. I'll keep you in my in box to remind me and I'll get to it sometime next week. If I didn't have numbers and names floating in my mind I'd probably be able to remember how I came by it. lol

OH, I am amazed that anyone has finally found Fannie's maiden name. I hope you will share how you discovered her maiden name. Also, have you found when and where John and Francis married ??

Hi Mary,

I wish I could help you but you see, I'm not and never have claimed to be a genealogist. All I ever claimed to be was a database specialist since that was a 'paying' job I held for over 12 years. I only added people to my file from the four Popejoy books and the stuff Patsy Andraschko dug up. Once that was available on the net, then several hundred other people offered their data which did fill in a lot of blanks and dead ends.

I did try to look up some of the people you listed here using my Ancestry.com CENSUS account but with a dial up connection and finding no one back at the time frame you were needing, I gave up.

Good luck in your search.

Perschbacher. Thomas, son of Peter Meredith, was probably the second. He was born July 17, 1838, and is now a resident of the State of Kansas.

The first death was that of Mr. Wilson, who died in the fall of 1840 and was buried at Rochester. About the year 1839, or perhaps 1840, a lot was donated to the township by John McGeary, for a public cemetery. It was the first in the township, and during the intervening years has received within its fold many who were among the oldest and most active citizens. It is situated in Section 14, and known as the "Richter Cemetery."

In 1839, the first mill in the township was erected by Job Meredith, on the bank of Yellow Creek. It was a saw mill, and many residences still extant in the township were constructed of timber sawed at this mill. "In 1840 or 1841, he added a carding mill, but only operated the latter for a few years. He operated the saw mill until his death, when it was purchased by Peter Meredith, and operated until a few years ago.

A saw mill was erected in 1847 by Samuel Hege, on the bank of a smaller stream, then called Hege's Creek. It was sold after his death, and having outlived its usefulness, was abandoned a few years later. In 1852, a saw mill was erected by John Kendall, on the little stream known as Chippewa Nuck. It was operated quite successfully for a number of years, but finally abandoned.

The flouring mill at Bloomingsburg was erected in 1852 by Ambrose Meredith. It was sold by him, a few years later, to Caleb Montgomery, and from him it passed into the ownership of various parties, and finally to Dr. N. J. Clynmer, the present proprietor. It has been remodeled at various times, and now ranks among the best mills in the county.

SCHOOLS.

In the winter of 1839–40, Ambrose Meredith conducted a school in his own house. This was the first school ever taught in the township, and according to the usual custom of the times, was sustained by private subscription. During the following spring, the citizens erected a log schoolhouse on the Ambrose Meredith farm, and Mr. Meredith was engaged to teach during the next term.

On the Decatur Irvin farm, a similar building was erected in 1842 or 1843, and another was erected on the John Culver farm in 1842, and Robert Gordon was engaged as teacher. About the same time, a log schoolhouse was erected on the Samuel Ball farm, and another on the farm of George Sauns. These were all sustained by a tuition fund contributed by the parents of children who attended the schools. About the year 1845, the township was divided into school districts, and the public money in the hands of the township trustees was applied in partial payment of the school expenses, after which schoolhouses were erected in each of the several districts. From this time there was a perceptible improvement in the condition of the schools, which has gone steadily onward in the intervening years.

South of the S. H. Farry farm, in Section 23, a log schoolhouse was erected in 1845 or 1846, in which only a few terms had been taught when the patrons became dissatisfied with the action of the trustees in the division of the district, and the school was demoralized and broken up in consequence of this strife. The citizens chiefly interested then united in the erection of a schoolhouse, maintaining a school at their own expense. By the action of the trustees, the old building had been torn down, and some of its former scholars assigned to another district, somewhat remote from their homes. The new building was erected on the site of the old, and was called "Independence Schoolhouse," from the spirit in which it was built, as well as from the fact that it was independent of the control exercised by the trustees over the township schools. It had the best of teachers, and it is said that no school in the township ever had a more prosperous existence or a larger enrollment of scholars. It was maintained thus by private patronage for a number of years until the present free school law became operative, and in 1856 this building was succeeded by Center Schoolhouse.

The adoption of the provisions made for free public education by the revised Constitution of 1851, was the beginning of a new era, during which the schools have reached a high degree of perfection and usefulness. A small tax is levied for their support, and only persons of ability are eligible to the position of teacher, while their benefits are free to all who have the disposition to enjoy them. The township is divided into nine districts, in each of which there is a substantial frame school building, while school is taught during a period of from three to six months each year.

CHURCHES.

In 1839, the first religious exercises were conducted at the house of Job Meredith. A stranger rode up to the house one evening, and with the cordial hospitality that characterized those early times, he was invited in. During his short stay, it was ascertained that he was a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and his host prevailed on him to stay and lead the little community in public worship. The neighbors were apprised of his presence, and assembled to enjoy the rites of which they had been thus far deprived in their forest home. The minister departed on the following day, leaving an awakened interest in the cause of religion, and to his visit, perhaps, is attributable the early organization of the Yellow Creek Baptist Church, which was the first organization in the township.

Yellow Creek Baptist Church.—Late in the fall of 1839, Rev. James Martin, of Kosciusko County, held services in the cabin of Job Meredith, and visited this vicinity frequently thereafter for a number of years. During the period of his ministry (in July, 1840), an organization was effected under the name of Yellow Creek Church, which has grown and prospered encouragingly during the intervening years. Job Meredith and wife, Robert Meredith and wife, Robert Meredith and wife, Keziah Meredith, Elizabeth Meredith, Rebecca Meredith, James Garvin and Thomas Meredith and wife were the original members. For a period of ten years after organization, the society had no permanent house of worship, but met at the homes of its members. In 1850, however, Peter Meredith donated an acre of ground for a church and cemetery, upon which, in the same year, was erected a frame house of worship, in which services were conducted for a period of twenty-three years. In 1873, the present house of worship was erected on the same lot, but on the opposite side of the road. The church is now under the pastoral care of Rev. E. M. McGraw, and has a membership of 220.

Bethlehem Baptist Church.—This church was organized in the winter of 1874–75, by thirty-two members, who were formerly identified with Yellow Creek Church, but, living somewhat remote from the latter, desired to have religious privileges nearer home. For a few years they held services in a schoolhouse in the eastern part of the township, but finally a lot was donated by Isaac Meredith, upon which, in the summer of 1880, they completed a neat frame house of worship. The church is growing steadily, and is now under the pastoral care of Rev. E. M. McGraw.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church.—In the fall of 1849, Rev. C. Sturcken came from Logansport and held religious services in the Irvin Schoolhouse, according to the rites of the Lutheran Church, and visited his charge regularly thereafter at intervals of four weeks. Early in the year 1850, an organization was effected at the house of George Perschbacher, Sr., with the following constituent members, viz.: George Perschbacher, Sr., and wife, Nicholas King, Sr., and wife, Jacob Stockberger and wife, John Kesler and wife, Jacob Mechling and wife, John Mechling, Daniel Swineheart, Solomon Dumbauld and wife, George Stockberger and wife, Solomon Stockberger, Paul Stockberger, Samuel Mechling and wife, Sallie Stockberger and Daniel Wagoner and wife. For a time a neighboring schoolhouse was used as a house of worship; at other times the meetings would be held in the house of one of the members, and thus, for a period of thirteen years, they had only temporary places of meeting. In 1863, however, they erected the present house of worship on land donated for that purpose by Jacob Stockberger. It is a neat frame building, 34x50 feet, and was erected at a cost of $1,450. Rev. Mr. Sturcken continued in the pastoral office for several years, and was succeeded by Rev. T. W. Corbet, who was the pastor when the church was erected. He was succeeded after several years by Rev. A. V. House. Rev. I. Hursh succeeded Mr. House four years later, and remained but one year. At the end of that time Mr. House returned, and remained until June, 1879, when he was succeeded by Rev. A. E. Gift, the present pastor. The church is in prosperous condition, with a membership of between forty and fifty persons.

The Methodist Episcopal Church.—In 1841, Rev. Ansel Beach visited the settlement and conducted services in Joel Culver's house, and in the fall of that year a class was organized. It lacked vitality, however, and was disorganized after a brief existence. In 1844 or 1845, Rev. D. F. Stright conducted services in the house of Samuel Hege, and about the same time organized a class at the house of John S. Mow, which has preserved its identity ever since, although it has never become strong enough to erect or own a house of worship. The meetings are now held in the Barkman Schoolhouse, by Rev Mr. Rush, pastor of the circuit. Another class was organized by Rev. D. F. Stright, in 1846, in the east part of the township. For five or six years the meetings were held at the house of James N. Love, but its members united with other societies in later years, and the class was disorganized.

The United Brethren organized a class in 1849 or 1850, at the house of Samuel Hege, who had then severed his connection with the Methodist Church. The meetings were held at his house till his death, and afterward in the village of Bloomingsburg. The class existed for about ten years, but from various causes it failed to prosper, and was finally disorganized.

Sycamore Chapel.—In 1857 or 1858, Elder Alexander Thompson, of the Disciples Church, organized a society of that denomination at the Black Schoolhouse, and for about ten years this schoolhouse was the place at which the meetings were held. At the end of that time, the meeting place was transferred to Popular Seminary in Kosciusko County. Hartman Horn donated a lot in 1872, upon which the society erected a neat frame house of worship in the same year, at a cost of about $1,500, and the new church was denominated "Sycamore Chapel." It has prospered from the first, and now has between sixty and seventy members enrolled.

Elder William Shaw was the pastor when the church was built, and among those who have since served the church in that capacity are Elders Jayne, Grissom, Marshall, McKinsey, and Abner Snow, the present pastor.

Bloomingsburg Disciple Church.—The present house of worship was erected in 1874, on land donated by M. Van Buren Coplin, just across the river from the village of Bloomingsburg. The society was organized in 1868, in the schoolhouse two miles north of the village, the meetings being held there until the church was completed. Elder Dixon was the pastor in charge when the church was erected, and continued to act in that relation until his decease. He was succeeded by Elder Thomas Whitman, whose successors have been, respectively, Elder Samuel McNealy, Elder O. Meredith and Elder Fowler. A fine organization has been maintained from the first, and the church is now in prosperous condition. Elder D. W. Fowler is the pastor in charge at the present time, the church membership being eighty.

SOCIETIES.

Bloomingsburg Lodge, No. 489, A., F. & A. M., was organized in 1873, under dispensation, and received its charter on the 26th of May, 1874. The charter members were P. C. Dumbauld, J. E. Cates, James M. Colvin, G. B. Stockberger, Henry Bowman, J. P. Smith, S. Y. Grove, Newton J. Clymer, John W. Black and Alonzo E. Stukey, and the first officers were Newton J. Clymer, W. M., John W. Black, S. W., Alonzo E. Stukey, J. W.

The first meeting was held in the present lodge room, which is the property of the order. The lodge has continued to prosper from the first, and maintains its reputation as a good working lodge. It has between thirty and thirty-five active members, and is in satisfactory financial condition. The officers for the current term (1882), are S. Y. Grove, W. M.; W. H. Baugher, S. W.; J. A. Fenstemaker, J. W.; J. M. Fish, Sec.; G. B. Stockberger, Treas.; Joseph Zollman, S. D.; J. B. Emmons, J. D.; N. J. Clymer and P. C. Dumbauld, Stewards.

Bloomingsburg Chapter, No. 46, O. E. S., was organized in the fall of 1880, in the hall of Bloomingsburg Lodge, No. 489, with the following charter members: W. H. Baugher, S. Y. Grove, N. J. Clymer, G. B. Stockberger, P. C. Dumbauld, L. S. Dumbauld, J. M. Fish, Henry Bowman, John Fenstemaker, Amanda Baugher, Lizzie Grove, Nora Clymer, Julia Stockberger, Mary Fenstemaker, Joseph Zollman, Mrs. Redinger, Jesse Meredith, Hulda Meredith, John Correll, Elizabeth Correll, Asbury Williamson and wife, and Solomon Stockberger and wife. The officers elected at the organization were: N. J. Clymer, W. P.; Julia Stockberger, W. M.; Lizzie Grove, W. A. M.; John Fenstemaker, Treas.; J. M. Fish, Sec.; Mrs. Redinger, C.; Fances Stockberger, A. C.; S. Y. Grove, W.; Jesse Meredith, S.; Mrs. Williamson, A.; Mrs. Correll, R.; Hulda Meredith, E.; Mary Fenstemaker, M.; Amanda Baugher, Electa. The chapter is in splendid working order, and an active interest is manifested by its members, the most active of whom are the ladies. The following officers occupy the several stations for the current term (1882): N. J. Clymer, W. P.; Julia Stockberger, W. M.; Lizzie Grove, W. A. M.; John Fenstemaker, Treas.; W. H. Baugher, Sec.; Nora Clymer, C.; Amanda Baugher, A. C.; S. Y. Grove, W.; Jesse Meredith, S.; Miss Florence Zollman, Ada; Elizabeth Correll, Ruth; Hulda Meredith, Esther; Mrs. Fenstemaker, Martha; Ann Doremyre, Electa. The chapter has an active membership of thirty-seven, and meets twice a month.

Bloomingsburg Lodge, No. 516, I. O. O. F., was organized on the 18th of November, 1875, with the following charter members, viz.: H. Bowman, H. Ingledue, H. Windbigler, L. Chapman, N. J. Clymer, J. L. Meredith, J. J. Taylor, J. M. Davenport and S. P. Hodge. The officers first elected were N. J. Clymer, N. G.; J. J. Taylor, V. G.; J. L. Meredith, Sec. The first meeting was held in a building owned by George Kesler and Alonzo Stukey, and for several years the order had no lodge room that it could call its own. Finally, however, the members decided to erect a lodge room and elected Lewis Ely, Hiram Horn and Silas Fisher trustees, and to the energetic efforts of these gentlemen the lodge is indebted for the prosecution and successful completion of the undertaking. The lodge had then only about $400 in the treasury, and with a capital so limited the trustees entered upon the erection of a hall to cost $1,200. By personal efforts and good financiering, they succeeded, and by economy in the management of its inner affairs, the lodge has freed itself from debt, its resources being ample to meet all outstanding obligations. The building is a two-story frame house, 22x70 feet, the lodge room being in the upper story, while the ground floor is occupied as a business room. The lodge is in excellent working order, having an active membership of sixty five The present officers are: M. A. Ralstin, N. G.; T. B. Farry, V. G.; H. Tipton, P. S.; M. W. Hodge, R. S.; Stephen Pearson, Treas.

Jubilee Lodge, No 195, Daughters of Rebekah, was organized March 18, 1879, in the hall of Bloomingsburg Lodge, No. 516, with the following charter members, viz.: Hugh Bowman, N. J. Clymer, S. H. Farry, E. W. Goodwin, Charles Redinger, Aaron Packer, L. Chapman, Louis H. Windbigler, T. B. Farry, Mrs. Malinda Bowman, Mrs. Klymer, Mrs. Ruth Farry, Mrs. Redinger, Mrs. Packer, Mrs. Chapman, and Mrs. Ely, and from among this number the following officers were elected: Charles Redinger, N. G.; Mrs. Farry, V. G.; H. Windbigler, Sec.; M. E. Chapman, Treas. The ladies have taken an active interest in the welfare of their lodge, and have made it one of the best Rebekah lodges in the county. It is in excellent working order, having between sixty and seventy members. The following ladies occupy the several elective offices of the lodge at the present time: Mrs. Delilah Taylor, N. G.; Mrs. Emma Chapman, V. G.; Miss Hodge, R. S.; Mrs. Hulda Meredith, P. S.; Mrs. J. M. Fish, Treas.

Mary,

My office address, which is below, is fine. I look forward to seeing the materials that you are going to be sending. I also have some additional ideas about locating Isaac McGary documents. Have you considered asking the Fulton County clerk for a list of all transactions (property and other) to which John or Francis was a party? If the county's records are computerized, this should be an easy, cost-free way to get the information (easier than ordering microfilm). But I don't yet have a clear sense of how many counties can do this.

I started thinking about this after Walker County, Texas sent me the property transactions for Isaac McGary for a two-year period (1853-54). There were about twelve of them, making me realize for the first time how extensive his real estate dealings must have been. Now I need such a print-out.

By the way, Bob Gillespie sent me electronic copies of several pictures of Fannie McGary, named for her grandmother (John's wife) and/or her aunt, your ancestor. Let me know if you would like copies. She is a striking looking woman, both in middle and in extreme old age.

Best regards,
Merritt

Merritt,
So glad you are finding so many good records. I guessed that Bob Gillespie would share info with you, as he has done with me.
I think I will copy what I have on John McGary....his will, etc, and send that material so that you can begin to bring together those documents..........still doing a bit more research on the children of John and Francis which I will send later.
Please send your mailing address and if the weather does not cause me to be stranded, again, will get the first of the material in the mail. I do not have much, but some will be new to you since you had little info on John and Francis.

Mary,

I will be very interested in what you find out about John McGary's deeds.

I spent the weekend downloading and reading documents from the internet (Fort Bend County and the Texas GLO) to try to get a better understanding of what happened to Elizabeth Powell's family, both her daughter Ellen/Eleanor, who married Isaac and then James McClelland and her son-in-law, Leeman Kelsey, who bought a piece of Isaac's league, bought a slave jointly with Isaac, and died around 1838. The picture is much clearer than it was, and there are a number of interesting facts that hint at complicated human relationships that I can only guess at. But I still need to get a copy of Ellen McClelland's letters of administration and to find the administration of Leeman Kelsey's estate.

Two things are clear. Ellen/Eleanor McClelland was Isaac's second wife, and their marriage was not terminated by her death. Still unclear is whether they had children.

Separately, I have been corresponding with Bob Gillespie, who has been very generous and helpful, as well as with a member of James Gillespie Hopkins' family, who has also been very generous in sending me materials.

I have begun to get copies of the deeds to Isaac McGary's property in Walker County and have realized that he owned scores of pieces of property.

I found a number for Frank Deffes in Harahan and tried to reach him yesterday. No answer and no answering machine, but the phone was clearly in operation.

We are waiting for a sloppy snowstorm tonight and tomorrow. Snow followed by wintry mix followed by freezing rain followed by nightfall, freezing the whole concoction. The region will likely be completely shut down.

Best regards,
Merritt

Subject: Re: John McGary

Made an exciting find this weekend and something I have looked for,,,,,even had a researcher try to locate several years ago........the location of burial of John McGary. The Fulton Co. IN list of cemetery burials is now online and I found the following:

Reichter Cemetery / Fulton Co. IN
Row 7 - North
John McGary
died / 13 Aug 1850
90 years - 2 months - 26 days

I rather think the age should be 98 years, as he was listed as age 98 on the 1850 census. His calculated date of birth would be 18 May 1752 (if, indeed, he was 98 at death). His wife, Francis "Fanny" McGary died 20 Nov 1837 and is buried in Higbee Cemetery in Fayette Co. OH. Years ago, her stone is supposed to have read 81 years (month and day not given), but is now illegible except for the date. Thus she would have been born ca 1756, per her stone.

Each time I think.....now I will copy the McGary material for Merritt.......I start finding additional information. Bear with me for a little longer and hope my delay does not cause problems with your book, but all of this information really does add to the entire story of Isaac McGary and family.

I was amazed that the county clerk of Fort Bend Co. TX has made available so much material pertaining to the County. Many counties are beginning to add records online, but many, many seem to think these records are very private........not so, and I remember years ago trying to obtain the marriage record for Edward Popejoy and Martha "Patsey" McGary. I received a two page hand-written letter from the clerk, bemoaning her difficulties with sick employees and her lack of time to fulfill my request. Will continue to look around a bit more for info on the McGarys.

Merritt,
I have not looked at any property records for Fulton Co. IN. The will of John McGary filed in Fulton Co. contains the following:
"Also, I direct that all of my land being in the County of Fulton, and known and described as follows, Lot No three and four, Section No. fourteen and Township No. thirty one North of Range No. three East, containing one hundred and one acres, also all that part of the North West fractional quarter of Section No. Twenty three, in Township No. thirty one, North of Range three East, that lays North of Tippecanoe River, estimated to contain fourteen acres, be the same more or less. Also forty three acres and 80/100 of an acre of ground in the South East Corner of the North West quarter of Section fourteen Town thirty one North of Range three.....he requests to be sold and after paying just debts, funeral expenses.........the remainder is bequeathed to his children who are named.
I have not even checked to see if the deeds of purchase or sale are available in Fulton Co. IN. This needs to be done.
I had not considered the John McGary in Cincinnati in 1830 and 1840 as my John McGary, mainly because his wife, Francis had died, surely, in Fayette Co. OH in 1837. I had always thought that John and Francis were probably the "oldsters" living in the household of John Troxel in Fayette Co. OH in 1830:
1830 Census / Fayette Co. OH / Concord Twp / page 307
John Troxel
Male / under (*is this Oliver Troxel)
Male / 10-15 (is this Sylvester Troxel)

Male / 30-40 (is this John Frederick Troxel)
Male / 60-70 (is this John McGary)
Female / 30-40) (is this Jane McGary Troxel)
Female / 60-70 (is this Francis McGary)

*named in his mother's will of 1837/Fayette Co OH / not listed in John McGary's will)  named in his mother's will of 1837 and named in John McGary's will)
Note: Sylvester Troxel married Sarah Ann Marshall / 2 Mar 1834 / Clermont Co. OH (vital records)
There is no way to prove that the two older people in the 1830 household of John Troxel are the McGarys. It just seems a possibility, since both Francis McGary and Jane McGary Troxel are buried next to each other in Higbee Cemetery. The burial of both does place them in Fayette Co. in 1837 when both died.
As far as 1840.....again, I thought that the old gentleman in the Robert Gordon household in the following census was probably John McGary:
1840 census / Wayne Co. IN / Clay Twp / page 580
Robt Gordon
Male / 10-15
Male / 60-70 (Robert Gordon)
Male / 80-90 (probably John McGary)
Female / 50-60 (Eleanor McGary Gordon)
Note: Sanford Gordon, the son of Robert and Eleanor, was also in Wayne Co. IN in 1840 and by 1850, Sanford and family are in Marshall Co. IN with John McGary, age 98, in their household.
I realize that the 1830 and 1840 census do not name anyone but head of household, but the ages for the older man in both censuses does offer something for consideration..

Made an exciting find this weekend and something I have looked for,,,,,even had a researcher try to locate several years ago........the location of burial of John McGary. The Fulton Co. IN list of cemetery burials is now online and I found the following:

Reichter Cemetery / Fulton Co. IN
Row 7 - North
John McGary
died / 13 Aug 1850
90 years - 2 months - 26 days

I rather think the age should be 98 years, as he was listed as age 98 on the 1850 census. His calculated date of birth would be 18 May 1752 (if, indeed, he was 98 at death). His wife, Francis "Fanny" McGary died 20 Nov 1837 and is buried in Higbee Cemetery in Fayette Co. OH. Years ago, her stone is supposed to have read 81 years (month and day not given), but is now illegible except for the date. Thus she would have been born ca 1756, per her stone.

Each time I think.....now I will copy the McGary material for Merritt.......I start finding additional information. Bear with me for a little longer and hope my delay does not cause problems with your book, but all of this information really does add to the entire story of Isaac McGary and family.

I was amazed that the county clerk of Fort Bend Co. TX has made available so much material pertaining to the County. Many counties are beginning to add records online, but many, many seem to think these records are very private........not so, and I remember years ago trying to obtain the marriage record for Edward Popejoy and Martha "Patsey" McGary. I received a two page hand-written letter from the clerk, bemoaning her difficulties with sick employees and her lack of time to fulfill my request. Very soon after her letter arrived, the State of Ohio enacted a law concerning the time allowed to county clerks to reply for such a request.........then, a hefty fine was assessed per each day the request was ignored. I, again, requested the marriage record. My word, it seemed to arrive in the next day's mail.

Will continue to look around a bit more for info on the McGarys.

Mary,

This is great. Does your discovery suggest any additional places to look for documentary information about John? Have you looked at property records, for example, for Fulton County?

I still remain intrigued by the John McGary in Cincinnati in 1830 and 1840.

Mary,

I have the bond marriage of Isaac to Eleanor Powell and can send it to you. I have seen nothing that suggests solidly to me that Eleanor married James McClelland, although I have seen references to the marriage. I didn't focus on it because there are other marriages of Eleanor McGarys around the same time. The timing would be about right; although Isaac does attest in early 1838 (in order to claim his headright labor) that he is married. I will check into the administration of Eleanor McClelland and see what I can find. It would, among other things, reveal whether she had any children by Isaac. Isaac's daughter remembers a visit by a son from a previous marriage. I've never known whether it was his son from his Ohio Eleanor or his Texas Eleanor marriage, although the latter is more probable.

Isaac's Mexican land grant can be downloaded as a color PDF on the Texas GLO's website. It's a handsome document I have the deed of sale of his league to an Ira Lewis, from which was excluded 444 acres that he earlier sold to his brother-in-law, who married Eleanor's 16-year-old sister. I don't have a deed for the 444 ac sale.

Best regards,
Merritt

Subject: RE: Isaac McGary

I have no records that would suggest that John and Francis McGary had other than one son, Isaac McGary.
Some years ago, I corresponded with a man by the name of Frank Deffes of Harahan, LA. He was working on the marriages of Eleanor Powell to Isaac McGary and James W. McClelland (and possibly a first marriage to a Powell). He suggested that Isaac McGary and Eleanor Powell were married by bond # 65 in Colonial Texas records. He, also, suggested that Isaac and Eleanor did not have their marriage legalized within six months (per law in Catholic Texas) and that Eleanor then married James W. McClelland in Fort Bend Co. Texas on 26 Apr 1838. I have not been able to find the bond # 65 or the 1838 marriage. Do you have any information concerning these marriages ?? I found that Eleanor (Ellen) Powell McGary McClleland apparently died in 1840. Letters of administration, dated 7 Dec 1840, concerning the estate of Ellen McClleland were issued (Case # 71) and named the administrator as James W. McClleland (see Fort Bend records / online)

I tried to contact Mr. Deffes to inform him of my find concerning the estate of Eleanor and to ask where I might obtain a copy of Eleanor's marriage to Isaac, but the e-mail was returned as no longer valid.
Also, do you have the land records for Isaac in Fort Bend Co. TX ? You can view these online (some as late as 1924, apparently clearing titles, etc) at:

http://ccweb.co.fort-bend.tx.us/

You may already have all of this info.........

Yes, I would like to see the family group sheets for Isaac's sisters (were there any brothers?). The more detail I have about Isaac, the more compelling a narrative I can compose about him.

I can rescan the three manuscript deeds. Were there any other items that did not copy?

Mary,

I didn't have this information, although I probably have a listing for the deed involved. Thank you very much for letting me know.

In 1838, when the town of Austin was laid out, there was a speculation frenzy, with investors paying crazy prices for lots in the center of the new city. Mirabeau Lamar, Sam Houston, Isaac, and many others engaged in a feeding frenzy, and all got burned when the bubble expanded to an impossible size and then burst.

About ten years later, Isaac was at it again, buying up lots in the center of Huntsville, although presumably with greater caution. Moreover, as far as I know, there was no real estate bubble in Huntsville as there had been in Austin. But the Sneedvine story has a very familiar ring. Isaac was always a trader and always, as far as I can tell, a very reluctant farmer.

Dear Mary,

Very interesting. So John was in Indiana as early as 1840.

I have been looking at Isaac McGary's later life, particularly his real estate transactions, triggered in part by the link that you sent me to the Austin law firm. I had forgotten that between about 1839 and 1841, Isaac McGary made investments, some in real estate, some in government bonds, in the about of $13,000, an extraordinary amount of money. It is all the more extraordinary since, during part of this period, he was being paid to deliver the mail between Houston and Egypt, Texas. (It may be that he subcontracted this work, but not necessarily.)

By the time he was well established in Huntsville, he was buying and selling property hand over fist. For example, in 1853 and 1854 alone, he sold about 12 pieces of property in Walker County. I am attaching a page from Fanny McGary's memoir that describes his assets at the time of his death.

(NOTE: Eleanor Gordon (dau of Robert and Eleanor McGary Gordon) married James Richter on 4 Jul 1839 in Wayne Co. IN. Eleanor Gordon Richter died about 1852 and James moved on to Missouri where he remarried.

I have ordered the deed records for the above two indexed deeds to obtain copies for our records and get further info about the first deed. I would guess that the Shepherd to McGary deed concerns more land than the land he bought from his granddaughter's husband, James Richter.

Will let you know when I receive the microfilm of deeds.

I now feel certain that John McGary is the old gentleman, age 80-90, living in the household of Robert Gordon in Wayne Co. IN, Clay Twp. in 1840. After the death of his wife, Francis, in 1837 in Fayette Co. OH he apparently moved to Indiana to be with his daughter, Eleanor. By the 1850 census, John is 98 and living with his grandson, Sanford Gordon in Marshall Co. IN.
Isaac McGary was a very interesting man. I feel sad that he, apparently, does not have a marker at his grave. If his burial location can be found, it seems important to see that the grave is marked. I, about three years ago, obtained a government stone to mark the grave of my Union Civil War great-grandfather, Sgt. William Harrison Mitchem, who is buried in Pittsburg, KS. He died in 1898 and his grave had no stone. I am happy that he is now honored for his service to his country.
How wonderful that the diary has survived. I know of no other McGary letters or such that have survived. I did note that on 28 May 2000 a George Richter (of Los Angeles, CA) posted on Rootsweb concerning James Richter and Eleanor Gordon of Fulton Co. IN and stated that "Eleanor's father was named Robert Gordon and a letter survived with his signature". He stated that any information and connection would be appreciated and amply rewarded.........I tried to contact him recently and the mail was returned.

I had forgotten that between about 1839 and 1841, Isaac McGary made investments, some in real estate, some in government bonds, in the about of $13,000, an extraordinary amount of money. It is all the more extraordinary since, during part of this period, he was being paid to deliver the mail between Houston and Egypt, Texas. (It may be that he subcontracted this work, but not necessarily.)

Since I have ordered the Fulton Co. IN deed index, I will wait for the arrival and see how many deeds are listed for John McGary. His wife, Francis, would not be involved in those deeds because she was already deceased by the time John went to Indiana. I believe he moved to Indiana with his daughter Eleanor and her husband, Robert Gordon after Francis died in 1837.and the following census seems to support this:
1840 census / Wayne Co. IN / Clay Twp / page 580
Robt Gordon
Male 10-15
Male 60-70 (Robert Gordon)
Male 80-90 (John McGary)
Female 50-60 (Eleanor McGary Gordon)
Also in Wayne Co. in 1840 was Sanford Gordon and family who moved to Marshall Co. IN by 1850. John McGary is living with Sanford and family in 1850.
I mailed what little I have on John McGary to you yesterday at the office address. It should arrive on Friday.......or Monday. I will now begin to gather my material for the children of John and Francis McGary to submit to you.
I have many pictures that Bob Gillespie sent to me. Many of those are of Fanny McGary. Such a lovely lady.

If the county's records are computerized, this should be an easy, cost-free way to get the information (easier than ordering microfilm). But I don't yet have a clear sense of how many counties can do this.

Subject: Re: John McGary

Made an exciting find this weekend and something I have looked for,,,,,even had a researcher try to locate several years ago........the location of burial of John McGary. The Fulton Co. IN list of cemetery burials is now online and I found the following:

Reichter Cemetery / Fulton Co. IN
Row 7 - North
John McGary
died / 13 Aug 1850
90 years - 2 months - 26 days

I rather think the age should be 98 years, as he was listed as age 98 on the 1850 census. His calculated date of birth would be 18 May 1752 (if, indeed, he was 98 at death). His wife, Francis "Fanny" McGary died 20 Nov 1837 and is buried in Higbee Cemetery in Fayette Co. OH. Years ago, her stone is supposed to have read 81 years (month and day not given), but is now illegible except for the date. Thus she would have been born ca 1756, per her stone.
Each time I think.....now I will copy the McGary material for Merritt.......I start finding additional information. Bear with me for a little longer and hope my delay does not cause problems with your book, but all of this information really does add to the entire story of Isaac McGary and family.
I was amazed that the county clerk of Fort Bend Co. TX has made available so much material pertaining to the County. Many counties are beginning to add records online, but many, many seem to think these records are very private........not so, and I remember years ago trying to obtain the marriage record for Edward Popejoy and Martha "Patsey" McGary. I received a two page hand-written letter from the clerk, bemoaning her difficulties with sick employees and her lack of time to > > > fulfill my request. Very soon after her letter arrived, the State of Ohio enacted a law concerning the time allowed to county clerks to reply for such a request.........then, a hefty fine was assessed per each day the request was ignored. I, again, requested the marriage record. My word, it seemed to arrive in the next day's mail.

Mr. Blakeslee,
Thank you for your contact pertaining to Isaac McGary. I continue to do research on Isaac and since my original post in 2003 have made contact with Robert Gillespie of Columbus, TX who has kindly shared a great deal of information concerning Isaac, including a large number of family pictures.
I descend from Martha "Patsey" McGary (dau of John and Fanny McGary) who married Edward Popejoy on 13 Jan 1814 in Butler Co. OH. Martha is a sister of Isaac McGary.
Some of the published material concerning Isaac McGary appears to be in error. I do believe he was born on 19 Jan 1800 in Butler Co. OH and died 21 Jun1866, in probably, Galveston, TX. He had three marriages....#1 Eleanor Markland...#2 Elizabeth B. Word and probably, #3 Eleanor Powell.
With the exception of the well-known Austin McGary, I have little knowledge of his children.
The will of Isaac's father, John McGary is found at Will Book A, pages 43/44/45/46/47 in Fulton Co. IN, dated 25 Sep 1847, he apparently being a resident of Marshall Co. IN. The will of John McGary lists all of the children with the exception of Isaac. I rather wonder if the family had lost contact with Isaac since he was so early in Texas ??
I appreciate your contact and offer to share information.
Please note my new e-mail address and will soon discontinue the AOL address.

Dear Mary,

Your materials on John McGary arrived last week and I read them over the weekend. Your materials represent a tremendous breakthrough in my knowledge of Isaac, John, and Francis.

As additional support for the proposition that Isaac is John's son, I read the last entry in the 1850 census listing for Sanford Gordon's household to be a three-year-old male child named "Isaac."

The questions that intrigue me after reading your materials are (1) when did John leave Butler County and why (age? better opportunities? family ties?); (2) where did he go next (Fayette Co. OH?); (3) when and why did he move on to Fulton County, IN? (was he by then simply an old man relying on his children and grandchildren to care for him or was he still active as a minister?). The "why" questions might be answered by general historical research (e.g., the crash of 1819). The "when" and "where" questions have been answered in part by your research in the censuses. More precision may be obtainable from land records. John was a land owner in Butler County. Presumably, he purchased land where he relocated, at least up to a certain point in his life.

The most interesting discovery would be family correspondence from this period. This possibility intrigues me because I just found a set of old letters (1807-1857) in my mother's papers answering precisely these sorts of "why" questions . . . but unfortunately not for the McGary side of my family. Have you any thoughts about where to look for such letters?

Did Bob Gillespie send you electronic versions of photographs? He sent me a few, mostly of Fannie McGary in middle and late life. I would be interested in comparing notes on what we each have and exchanging where there are gaps.

The disconnect between John's will and his children, Isaac and Betsey McGarey Martin, is also intriguing. I think (I am working from memory and am not at home where I can check) that John Martin was a neighbor of John and/or Isaac in Butler County, more support for the proposition that she is John and Francis' daughter.

I will send you the materials that I have on Butler County deeds, including partial or full transcriptions of most. I collected some relating to John and Isaac's neighbors, and you may see some familiar names.

Thank you again for these materials.

Best regards,
Merritt

McGary filed in Fulton Co. contains the following:
"Also, I direct that all of my land being in the County of Fulton, and known and described as follows, Lot No three and four, Section No. fourteen and Township No. thirty one North of Range No. three East, containing one hundred and one acres, also all that part of the North West fractional quarter of Section No. Twenty three, in Township No. thirty one, North of Range three East, that lays North of Tippecanoe River, estimated to contain fourteen acres, be the same more or less. Also forty three acres and 80/100 of an acre of ground in the South East Corner of the North West quarter of Section fourteen Town thirty one North of Range three.....he requests to be sold and after paying just debts, funeral expenses.........the remainder is bequeathed to his children who are named.
I have not even checked to see if the deeds of purchase or sale are available in Fulton Co. IN. This needs to be done.
I had not considered the John McGary in Cincinnati in 1830 and 1840 as my John McGary, mainly because his wife, Francis had died, surely, in Fayette Co. OH in 1837. I had always thought that John and Francis were probably the "oldsters" living in the household of John Troxel in Fayette Co. OH in 1830:
1830 Census / Fayette Co. OH / Concord Twp / page 307
John Troxel
Male / under (*is this Oliver Troxel)
Male / 10-15 (is this Sylvester Troxel)
Male / 30-40 (is this John Frederick Troxel)
Male / 60-70 (is this John McGary)
Female / 30-40) (is this Jane McGary Troxel)
Female / 60-70 (is this Francis McGary)

*named in his mother's will of 1837/Fayette Co OH / not listed in John McGary's will)  named in his mother's will of 1837 and named in John McGary's will)
Note: Sylvester Troxel married Sarah Ann Marshall / 2 Mar 1834 / Clermont Co. OH (vital records)
There is no way to prove that the two older people in the 1830 household of John Troxel are the McGarys. It just seems a possibility, since both Francis McGary and Jane McGary Troxel are buried next to each other in Higbee Cemetery. The burial of both does place them in Fayette Co. in 1837 when both died.
As far as 1840.....again, I thought that the old gentleman in the Robert Gordon household in the following census was probably John McGary:
1840 census / Wayne Co. IN / Clay Twp / page 580
Robt Gordon
Male / 10-15
Male / 60-70 (Robert Gordon)
Male / 80-90 (probably John McGary)
Female / 50-60 (Eleanor McGary Gordon)
Note: Sanford Gordon, the son of Robert and Eleanor, was also in Wayne Co. IN in 1840 and by 1850, Sanford and family are in Marshall Co. IN with John McGary, age 98, in their household.
I realize that the 1830 and 1840 census do not name anyone but head of household, but the ages for the older man in both censuses does offer something for consideration..

Mary,

This is great. Does your discovery suggest any additional places to look for documentary information about John? Have you looked at property records, for example, for Fulton County?

I still remain intrigued by the John McGary in Cincinnati in 1830 and 1840.

Best regards,
Merritt

Subject: Re: John McGary

Made an exciting find this weekend and something I have looked for,,,,,even had a researcher try to locate several years ago........the location of burial of John McGary. The Fulton Co. IN list of cemetery burials is now online and I found the following:

Reichter Cemetery / Fulton Co. IN
Row 7 - North
John McGary
died / 13 Aug 1850
90 years - 2 months - 26 days

I rather think the age should be 98 years, as he was listed as age 98 on the 1850 census. His calculated date of birth would be 18 May 1752 (if, indeed, he was 98 at death). His wife, Francis "Fanny" McGary died 20 Nov 1837 and is buried in Higbee Cemetery in Fayette Co. OH. Years ago, her stone is supposed to have read 81 years (month and day not given), but is now illegible except for the date. Thus she would have been born ca 1756, per her stone.
Each time I think.....now I will copy the McGary material for Merritt.......I start finding additional information. Bear with me for a little longer and hope my delay does not cause problems with your book,

Many counties are beginning to add records online, but many, many seem to think these records are very private........not so, and I remember years ago trying to obtain the marriage record for Edward Popejoy and Martha "Patsey" McGary. I received a two page hand-written letter from the clerk, bemoaning her difficulties with sick employees and her lack of time to fulfill my request. Very soon after her letter arrived, the State of Ohio enacted a law concerning the time allowed to county clerks to reply for such a request.........then, a hefty fine was assessed per each day the request was ignored. I, again, requested the marriage record. My word, it seemed to arrive in the next day's mail.

Sorry about that. Let's try it this way:

Lipscomb, McGary and Forgiveness
By Terry J. Gardner

Two of our best-known preachers in 1905 were David Lipscomb and Austin McGary. Lipscomb was synonymous with the Gospel Advocate and McGary was the founder of the Firm Foundation. Lipscomb rarely dealt in personalities; McGary enjoyed mixing it up and was not above using the crude language of the frontier in his religious discussions. Lipscomb taught that those baptized to obey God would be saved while McGary insisted, "belief that baptism is for remission of sins is essential to its validity." Lipscomb was a life long pacifist; McGary was a former Texas Sheriff who killed one man in the line of duty and another in days of his wayward youth.

Lipscomb gave his opinion of McGary in the Gospel Advocate, "I do not think McGary can fairly state the position of one from whom he differs. Cuts and innuendoes that irritate and keep up a ferment, and divide into parties, but convince no one, are not profitable. When Christians discuss questions, it should be with the desire to see how clearly they can understand each other, how nearly they can come together; and they ought to regard the slightest misrepresentation of each other as a wicked lie."

McGary gave his view of Lipscomb in the Gospel Outlook writing in 1905, "If Lipscomb had enough moral courage and reverence for revealed truth to acknowledge his error and repent of his evil work against the gospel of Christ, then charity would demand that I should forgive him and recognize him as an honest man. But as long as he stands before the world in his present insincere, dissembling, double-dealing Janus-faced attitude, charity demands that I shall brand him as a willful perverter of the truth he pretends to love, and a religious reprobate of the most hypocritical cast."

If the story ended here then it might be like so many other sad tales where brotherly love failed to prevail. In 1917 Lipscomb passed from this life into the next. Several more years passed until 1923 when this appeared from the pen of A. McGary in the Gospel Advocate:

> Brother [H. Leo] Boles and Brother [J. C.] McQuiddy have both written me concerning some very improper and unchristianlike things I said about Brother D. Lipscomb in the Gospel Outlook many years ago. I sincerely and deeply and penitently regret having said these things, and I unfeignedly and feelingly beg all of Brother Lipscomb's personal friends and the brotherhood in general to forgive me. It will be a lifelong regret with me that I did not apologize to Brother Lipscomb before he died for saying these things about him.

McQuiddy replied that he was sure Lipscomb would have "rejoiced" at such an apology and "would have freely forgiven Brother McGary." McQuiddy then added, "We must for give if we expect to be forgiven. This is a lesson that no only needs to be learned, but also one which should be practiced."

A few weeks later M. C. Kurfees wrote an editorial, in the Gospel Advocate commending McGary's "effective and beautiful" apology as a "noble example," for all Christians, "and especially for preachers." Kurfees noted that McGary's actions were "gracious" and of the "beautiful spirit of the Master" and then added that McGary's apology "furnishes the occasion for some important and timely reflections on the duty of Christians, and especially preachers, toward one another." Kurfees then offered his observations about McGary's apology:

1. The apology, Kurfees noted, was accompanied by no doubtful 'ifs' or conditions which … would leave one in doubt as to whether there is any real confession of wrong or wish to make matters right. It was clear, distinct, and directly to the point, bearing on its very face its own genuine sincerity and noble wish to make everything right."
2. The apology "betrayed no silly fear that its author might lower his dignity or injure his standing with men by a frank and open confession of wrong." Kurfees added that McGary "evidently made that confession and apology with an open Bible and a determination to please God at all hazards." Kurfees noted20that he had "seen a few noble confessions of wrong and apologies on the part of preachers" but that McGary's "occupies a place among the noblest."
3. According to Kurfees, McGary was exalted "in the eye of God and in the esteem of all right-thinking persons" by his apology. Kurfees believed that McGary's actions "in the present case is proof that back of it all is a heart which beats in unison with noble purpose to be true to God and to his word."

Kurfees then visualized Lipscomb rejoicing in Heaven with angels over McGary's noble act and that Lipscomb's "great heart yearned to press in tender brotherly love the honest hand of Brother McGary." Kurfees concluded, "May the good Lord overrule this noble example to the accomplishment of great good."

What about it my brethren? Can we learn from history or will we repeat it? Remember, it was Jesus who said if we fail to forgive others, our Father will not forgive us. (Matt: 6:15). Every idle word will be brought into judgment.

Hi Mary,

Last night I was looking through some old e-mails (dated 6-6-2002) and found one you sent me Re: McGary / Butler Co. OH and thought I would see if you have any more info on this couple. I received some info from another Powell researcher explaining their "marriage". It is in my "magic trash pile" and as soon as I find it I will send it to you but if my memory serves me right (not always) their "marriage" was dissolved by an act of the Texas Congress.

Your e-mail mentions Ellick Powell and wife Elizabeth, this could be my 3G-grandparents. Will have to check children's names to know for sure. They were Joseph(maybe by a previous wife), Samuel Graves Powell, Julia Ann, Elizabeth, and Eleanor.
